Senate Unit Gives Critical Survey About Restrictions

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee today urged officials to lift bombing restrictions in the Vietnam war. But President Johnson gave his figurative embrace to a senator newly converted to administration war policy.

The critical survey came from the watchdog Senate Defense subcommittee headed by Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., which sent four investigators to South Vietnam last fall for a check with U.S. commanders and combat units.

The panel said the cost of tactical air operations in Vietnam, including restricted bombing of targets in North Vietnam, "has been heavy for the limited gains achieved.

"The air raids over North Vietnam have made it more costly for the North Vietnamese to wage aggression, but it has been through the sacrifice of many American lives and aircraft losses extending into billions of dollars."

But Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., just back from Vietnam, maintained Sunday that the bombing should continue under present circumstances, then said Johnson had praised him for presenting his views and had asked for a personal meeting.

Meanwhile Democratic Sens. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania advocated a trial halt in bombing to test Soviet intentions on peace talks while Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said this would be dangerous.

The defense subcommittee's report was the second of six that Stennis has promised as a

U.S. Plane Shot Down Over North

Red Assaults Met By Blazing Display Of American Fire

SAIGON (AP) — American airmen smashing deep into North Vietnam shot a Communist MIG17 from the skies Sunday while the ground war erupted with sharp fighting from the 17th Parallel to the Mekong Delta.

One U. S. jet went down over the North, but the pilot was saved. Communist ground gunners in the South downed three American helicopters and badly shot up four more.

A series of Red assaults and mortar barrages in the delta, including one attack on the U. S. airfield near Can Tho, brought out a blazing display of U. S. ground, sea and air power. The guerrilla attacks were met with fire from helicopter gunships, shots from river patrol boats and a rain of bullets from lumbering C47 transports mounting guns that can each spew 6,000 rounds a minute.

The air battle over North Vietnam took place during a strike on the Son Tay Army supply point 23 miles west of Hanoi, the first time the installation has been reported bombed. It contains half a dozen ammunition bunkers and a string of barracks.

A flight of eight Soviet - designed MIGS jumped the U.S. raiders, and an Air Force F105 Thunderchief turned into the marauders and shot one down. It was the 38th MIG kill claimed by U.S. fliers in the war, in contrast to 10 U.S. planes shot down by North Vietnamese pilots.

The Thunderchief that went down over the North was hit by ground fire just above the demilitarized zone, the Air Force said. It was the 497th U.S. plane reported lost over the North. Hanoi radio claimed three U.S. planes were downed Sunday.

Spills Oil Toward Beaches

Tanker On Reef Breaks In Half

LAND'S END, England (AP) — The giant American tanker Torrey Canyon lay split in two on The Seven Stones reef today, spilling more oil toward the beaches of southwest England that already were being ruined.

Huge seas during the night wrenched the 61,263-ton ship apart almost amidships. The two halves lay about 25 yards apart with the bow at an angle of 40 degrees to the stern section.

The stern appeared to be slipping slowly from the reef into deeper water. The whole of the after section was under water with only a funnel showing.

The forward section lay listing to port, with only the high bows clear of the onrushing waves.

A sea of oil stretched to the horizon toward the Scilly Isles to the west. Near the English coast it broke up into long fingers surrounded by shimmering stretches where the film was thinner.

An armada of fishing boats pushed through the oil patches spraying detergent, trying to spread and sink the oil.

More than 70 miles of coastline, from the Lizard to Newquay, have been polluted by the advancing oil. In places the oil slick is ten inches thick. Gales forecast today threatened to spread the black carpet to most of Britain's south coast.

One expert estimated more than 15,000 gulls, cormorants and other sea birds have died and another 30,000 were trapped, unable to fly because their wings were clogged with oil.

Nature lovers feared that some species may become extinct. A small army of bird lovers was mobilized to save as many as possible from the oil.

Men also worked around the clock trying to save rich oyster beds in river estuaries. Dredges moved more than 700,000 oysters into deep water from the Duchy of Cornwall oyster farm which is owned by Prince Charles and leased to a chain of fish stores.

The worst hit beaches on the Cornish riviera were at Marzion and Prah Sands, where the sludge was up to 12 inches deep.

3 Are Injured In Fracas At Route 30 Club

Three persons were injured in a fracas early this morning at the Half Moon Club in the "Strip" area on Route 30 near the Pennsylvania line. A hammer and chain were reportedly used as weapons.

Three others, including two East Liverpool men and one from Beaver Falls, are being held at the Hancock County jail in New Cumberland under $2,000 bond each for "conspiring and combining together with intent to inflict injury."

Treated at City Hospital were Dale Fryer of New Cumberland R.D. 1, for a laceration of the left scalp inflicted with a hammer; William Beder of New Brighton, for a similar head injury, and William Stoakes of Beaver Falls, for lacerations and abrasions of the head, right knee and hand caused by a chain.

Being held at New Cumberland are James Flowers, 26, and Robert Moore, 28, both of East Liverpool, and Dennis Hill, 22, of Beaver Falls. In addition to the previously mentioned charge, Moore and Flowers have also been charged with felonious assault, Squire John D. Herron said.

Herron's report said they "alleged attacked William Beder of New Brighton and William Yovanic of Beaver Falls with a hammer and chain at the Half Moon Lounge about 1 this morning."

Flowers, Moore and Hill are to be arraigned today in Herron's office.

NFO Keeps Pressure On Milk Boycott

Teamsters Aid In Stopping Flow To Tennessee Homes

By The Associated Press

The National Farmers Organization maintained the pressure of a 25-state milk boycott today and with the help of the Teamsters Union shut off the flow of milk to homes and stores in much of Tennessee.

As the 13th day of the boycott began, the NFO claimed a major success in its campaign to increase by 2 cents a quart the price paid to farmers for their milk.

That was in Minnesota, where the NFO said 13 dairies handling 235 million pounds of milk yearly had signed contracts on NFO terms. In Wisconsin other signings were rumored, but not confirmed.

Many of the states affected by the boycott reported a lull in picketing and acts of violence over the Easter weekend.

In Chicago the Pure Milk Association reported deliveries of milk to the city's wholesalers had been reduced by only 5 or 6 per cent and that milk supplies remained adequate in all stores. No price increases were reported. The association represents Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana farmers supplying milk to the Chicago market.

The situation was reversed in Nashville, Tenn., where the combined action by NFO pickets, Teamsters and members of the Meat Cutters Union forced processors to curtail operations, kept milk off store shelves and halted home deliveries. Nashville milk processors serve some 1.5 million residents of

City Street Sweeping Set to Resume April 3

The city's mechanized street sweeper, idle since late last fall, will resume regular operations effective Monday, April 3, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey announced today.

The sweeper usually is idle from late fall to early spring because of winter weather.

Vodrey reminded motorists of the parking bans in effect on streets on which the sweeper is working. He said the schedule of operations will be announced regularly to alert drivers.

Despite Menacing Problems

Pope Paul Urges World To 'Hope'

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP) — As Easter pilgrims shivered in snowy Jerusalem, Italians favoring birth control and divorce demonstrated in St. Peter's Square and Pope Paul VI urged the world Sunday to hope despite "menacing and gigantic problems."

Jerusalem's Easter weather was the worst in memory, and it kept all but about 500 of the thousands of pilgrims in the Holy City away from prayers at the marble tomb of Christ. The first snow on the holiday in decades led some pilgrims to exchange "Merry Christmases" instead of "Happy Easter."

The annual Easter procession moved through slushy streets, and sunrise services were moved indoors.

Before nearly 250,000 persons jammed into St. Peter's Square in Rome, Pope Paul said that his own joy on the festive day of Christ's resurrection was dimmed by the world's troubles. But he urged men not to let their minds be saddened "at the futility of efforts towards good, at the growing powers of darkness."

The Pope said he believed it was time for the Roman Catholic Church to take up social problems again and announced the publication Tuesday of an encyclical on social justice and an end to poverty and hunger. It will be the fifth encyclical of the Pope's 3½-year reign.

Pope Paul began the day by celebrating Mass in a poor suburb of Rome. In white vestments and a mitre, he also celebrated Mass on the steps of St. Peter's before giving his Easter message to the throng in the square.

The Pope touched on the Vietnam war and religious restrictions in Communist nations and elsewhere.

As the pontiff appeared to speak, about 30 persons near the front of the crowd unveiled banners reading, "fewer children, less famine," "yes to the pill," and "five million Italians want a family without hypocrisy and cruelty."

banners and police hurried the demonstrators out of the crowd. The Roman Catholic Church forbids divorce and artificial methods of birth control.

In Vietnam, many American troops attended services in the field during a quiet Easter.

Constitution In Saigon Set For Saturday

Communique Says National Elections Will Be On Sept. 1

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's armed forces council decided today to put the country's new constitution into effect on Saturday.

A communique issued after a day-long meeting of the council also announced national elections on Sept. 1 for president, vice president and the Senate. The lower house of the National Assembly will be elected Oct. 1, the communique said.

The brief communique also reported that the council's 46 generals and colonels had voted their confidence that the national leadership committee, the ruling junta, would "maintain stabilization to bring about the democratic organizations."

There was no mention of presidential candidacies of chief of state Nguyen Van Thieu or Premier Nguyen Cao Ky. Both are known to be interested in the top position in the elected civilian government.

The council said it would "accept in full the draft constitution by the constituent assembly voted on March 18, 1967, and will promulgate this said constitution on April 1, 1967."

This moves up the constitutional timetable more than a month. It was to have been promulgated by May 3.

$26,511 Seen Available For City's Raises

The city will have only $26,511.27 available to grant pay increases to employes and meet unanticipated expenses during 1967, department heads were told Saturday night in a conference with Council and administration members in which the financial outlook for the year was reviewed.

The city officials pointed out that the total general fund revenue from all sources will be $715,682.44, based on the estimates prepared by the County Budget Commission. The 1967 appropriation ordinance, already drafted, calls for an outlay of $689,171.17 in the general fund, leaving only the $26,511.27 which has not been allocated, they said.

The balance was left only after several cuts had been made to remove previously scheduled appropriations, the officials said.

For instance, Mayor George E. Willshaw requested $80,000 for a street program in 1967, but only $22,700 will be appropriated. Another $11,000 was sought as the first installment on the cost of updating a plan to extend the Freeway from W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. to East End, but it has been eliminated entirely.

'Nothing To Apologize For'

Humphrey Likens Viet Stand To Berlin, Korea

GENEVA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey likened the American fighting in Viet Nam today to the U.S. stands in Berlin and Korea and told U.S. representatives in Geneva "we have nothing to apologize for."

Humphrey injected Vietnam and European criticsm of U.S. policy in Asia into a 45-minute talk to personnel of the American mission here on the first day of a two-week West European tour.

"This is a peace administration,' Humphrey declared, "but a peace with honor administration."

In Viet Nam, Humphrey said, the United States is carrying out three objectives of the U.N. Charter: To suppress aggression, promote self-determination and assist in nation building.

"We have not some pax Americana in mind," he said. "We have no desire to be the world's policeman."

But he contended the United States had a commitment to Vietnam and "if we welsh" on commitments "there will be no peace."

Humphrey compared criticism of President Johnson's Southeast Asia policy with attacks on Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman for their efforts to quarantine aggression.

"If you think the situation is tough in Vietnam, remember it was at other times," he said.

He said few supported Truman's conduct of the Korean War and added: "It's a strange thing when the leader is under

Three Felled By Fumes Reported 'Fairly Good'

Three members of a Wellsville family had to be rushed to City Hospital under oxygen Sunday after they were felled by carbon monoxide fumes. All were listed "fairly good" today.

George Oliver, 39, of 319 Broadway, his wife, Donna Jean Oliver, 36, and son James Oliver, 17, were discovered by another son, Bobby, 12, about 3 yesterday afternoon.

Oliver and his wife were unconscious in bed and the youth lay on the floor in an adjacent room.

Unable to rouse his parents, Bobby ran two blocks to the home of an aunt, Mrs. George Sims, who lives at Buckeye and 4th.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis said the younger son had been outside playing when he returned and tried to waken his father.

Fireman Frank Fusco received the call from Mrs. Sims and dispatched Officer Charles Amato to the scene in a police cruiser. Lewis was notified and arrived at the two-story frame home shortly thereafter.

Three ambulances were summoned to take the victims to the hospital.

Lewis said today an unvented cooking stove and space heater was responsible for leaking the deadly fumes.

Authorities are continuing their investigation.

'Wrong Way' Parking Rule To End Saturday

A relaxation of rules that permits so - called "wrong way" parking during the winter months will be terminated Saturday and enforcement will begin again, Police Chief A. J. Radeschi warned motorists today.

The ordinance which prohibits parking "against the free flow of traffic" usually is relaxed for 90 days each winter to make it easier for motorists to pull away from curbs on hillside streets.

The ordinance requires that cars must be parked heading in the same direction as traffic moves in the adjoining lane.

Collegians End Fling, Head Back To Classes

By The Associated Press

Youth had its fling over the Easter weekend, mainly at several East and Gulf Coast resorts, to climax their holiday vacations. But it wasn't all rioting and arrests as the mod set staged a West Coast "Love-In" and a Manhattan "Be-In."

Police heaved sighs of relief Sunday as more than 40,000 collegians headed back to classes, leaving some beaches strewn with beer cans and other debris.

At Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the bulk of 30,000 college boys and girls began a mass exodus to various campuses. There were 500 in the young army of revelers arrested for drunkenness, rowdyism, loitering and interfering with police activities from Thursday through Sunday.

Early Sunday, 16 youths were arrested by Fort Lauderdale police after they pelted officers with firecrackers. A van taking them to jail burst into flames but the driver quickly opened the door and averted serious injury.

The visiting young people at Daytona Beach, Fla., found that local authorities eliminated seaside roistering with a ban on beer-drinking on the beach.

At Biloxi, Miss., an Easter Sunday rain put a damper on the rollicking activities of some 10,000 college students.

"It seems to have taken the cool out of them," a Biloxi policeman said.

Before the rain, however, 85 youths had been arrested on such charges as disorderly conduct, destroying property, drunken driving, interfering with highway traffic and indecent exposure.

Police Chief Louis Rosetti said, "It's a mess. They've been breaking windshields of cars, tearing up lawn chairs, and tearing down piers to build bonfires."

On Saturday, police cleared the beach of beer-swigging students as Rosetti announced: "We're not letting them camp on the beach."

At Ocean Drive Beach, S.C., several hundred college and high school students began rioting Saturday midnight. By the time the fracas was broken up at 2 a.m., a policeman had been cut by a broken bottle and some 150 students were in jail.

In Hollywood, Calif., early Sunday about 500 teen-agers became unruly as they left the International Teen Fair. They were tossing bottles and rocks at passing cars when police closed in. Fifteen were arrested but there were no injuries and little property damage. Another 500 youths attending the affair took no part in the melee.

At Los Angeles, 4,500 bearded and miniskirted hippies gathered at Elysian Park Sunday for a "Love-In."

"Christ is here with us, baby," said Peter Berman, who helped organize the encampment. "So is Buddha."

Sounds at the gathering included mainly bongo drums, bells, guitars, and group singing. Some recited poetry and made speeches. The only problem was the giant traffic jam around the park.

In New York's Central Park, 10,000 members of the beard-and-sandal crowd staged the city's first "Be-In," featuring love and "happenings."

The girls wore painted faces (such as "love" printed across the forehead) while a number of the boys were bare-chested and barefoot under sunny skies.

Some flew kites, others played marbles, a number slept, and an even greater number just watched.

One group of about 1,000 demonstrated good fellowship about every 15 minutes or so by joining hands in a "love circle."

Young Man Kills Relative, 13, And Then Shoots Self

PRINCETON, W. Va. (AP) — Police said today they were dismayed and "heartsick" when a young Princeton man wanted on a burglary charge shot and fatally wounded his 13-year-old sister-in-law hostage before killing himself.

State Police had tried to coax 23-year-old Warren R. Clapps out of a barricaded basement in the girl's home early Sunday then used a tear gas grenade hoping to flush him out with the girl.

Instantly, Clapps — an unemployed handyman "always in and out of trouble" — fired a bullet from a .32 caliber pistol into young Shirley Proffitt's head and then put a bullet in his own temple, police said.

War

said that despite continuing bad weather, U.S. pilots hit North Vietnam with 98 missions Sunday.

The fighting in the delta centered near Can Tho, 50 miles southwest of Saigon, and was another sign of the mounting war in that vital area, which grows much of the nation's rice and holds most of her people.

Supporting South Vietnamese troops, a flight of helicopters got caught in heavy ground fire in Vinh Long Province. Three were shot down four were badly damaged. Two Americans were killed, two were missing and 12 were wounded. But South Vietnamese headquarters said 142 Viet Cong were killed in the action.

Late Sunday night the guerrillas struck again with 40 mortar rounds fire on the airfield west of Can Tho, causing no damage, officials reported, and a series of attacks on river outposts manned by South Vietnamese militia.

Flareships circled the Can Tho area throughout the night, casting an eerie light over the rice fields and isolated battles.

A fleet of four small river patrol boats, each with three machine guns and a grenade launcher which can hurl 40 rounds per minute, swept up the Bassac River to help one embattled post.

Overhead a twin-engine C47 transport with fast-firing guns poking out of its side circled and laid down streams of fire on the attacking guerrillas. Two other C47s circled another embattled post a few miles away.

In the hit and run manner of the delta war, the guerrillas pulled back by dawn.

Near the demilitarized zone in the North; U.S. Marines were engaged in renewed battles on the gentle slopes of Con Thien mountain, which dominates the coastal sector of the zone. The day's fighting cost the Marines six dead and 28 wounded. A Navy helicopter from the carrier Princeton, on a medical evacuation flight, was shot down with no reported casualties.

Just to the west of this battle another Marine unit lost one dead and six wounded during a 200-round Communist mortar barrage. The Marines had just uncovered a series of more than 100 Communist bunkers just south of the demilitarized zone. In and around the zone the Reds have some 35,000 troops and have long been expected to make some big offensive moves.

Scattered fighting also continued along the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon. Operation Junction City, the biggest U.S. ground sweep of the war which was begun Feb. 22, continued to probe for suspected Communist hideouts in war zone C. Five U.S. infantrymen died and seven more were wounded.

The operation was supported again by B52 bombers from Guam, each carrying a 60,000-pound bomb load. They hit a suspected Red camp a dozen miles from the Cambodian frontier. Two other B52 raids hit suspected Red hideouts west of Da Nang and in coastal Binh Dinh Province.

result of an investigation of the war by the panel.

A Defense Department statement published as part of the censored report protested that the Senate findings were "in important respects marred by errors of fact and inference."

But the Pentagon made no denial of the subcommittee statement that "selection of targets to be struck in North Vietnam is still controlled in large measure from Washington. The striking forces must operate outside of certain prohibited areas and to the exclusion of specific targets."

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., a member fo the subcommittee, said in a separate report on his December visit to the war theater that U.S. pilots want to be free to hit airfields in the North.

He said the pilots told him the Soviet-built MIG fighter forces are tough, aggressive and sophisticated and the pilots want to be released from Washington restrictions so they can destroy runways and MIGs on the ground in the North.

The United States "continues its policy of not employing with maximum effect its conventional air and sea power against the more meaningful targets in North Vietnam," Symington said.

"The time is approaching," the former Air Force secretary said, "when we must decide whether we will move forward or move out."

Brooke, who once advocated a reduction of the U.S. military effort in Vietnam and had called for a reassessment, said in the Senate Thursday and repeated Sunday that the present military level is essential.

He spoke Sunday on CBS' "Face The Nation."

He said he believes "Ho Chi Minh was now listening to the hawks" in North Vietnam, who are advising the North Vietnamese president that "the United States is seriously divided at the present time" on the conduct of he war.

Brooke said "if we shows strength, I believe he (Ho) will come to the peace table sooner..." Brooke said bombing of North Vietnam should continue and that "withdrawal would be a drastic mistake."

He said later Johnson told him he had performed "a great service to the country" and asked for a meeting when the two return to Washington. Brooke spent the weekend in Boston, Johnson in Maryland.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—Is there any way I can remedy the gripper snaps on children's clothing which have gotten weak and will not stay fastened?

A.—To make these work like new, just take a pair of pliers and bend one or two of the prongs in the socket a little.

Q.—How can I facilitate the separation of sliced bacon in its package?

A.—By taking the whole package and rolling it up crosswise. Then, when you unroll it, the slices will separate immediately without breaking.

Q.—How can I prevent tarnish on my costume jewelry?

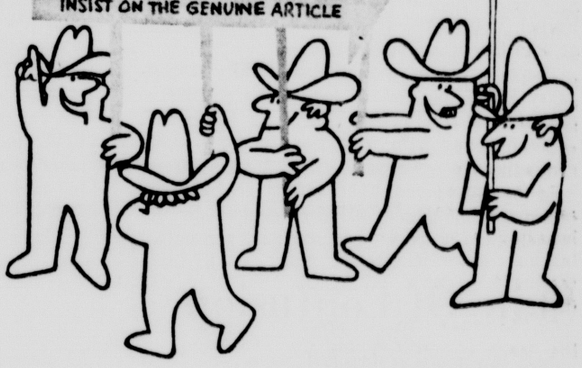

A.—If you'll keep a stick of ordinary blackboard chalk in your jewelry box, this will aid in tarnish prevention. This same idea also works well in chests of silverware and other cabinets where metal objects subject to tarnish are stored.

Q.—How can I mend sheer or nylon curtains?

A.—Apply a bit of colorless nail polish, and press the torn edges together with your fingers. The tear will be almost invisible.

said that despite continuing bad weather, U.S. pilots hit North Vietnam with 98 missions Sunday.

The fighting in the delta centered near Can Tho, 50 miles southwest of Saigon, and was another sign of the mounting war in that vital area, which grows much of the nation's rice and holds most of her people.

Supporting South Vietnamese troops, a flight of helicopters got caught in heavy ground fire in Vinh Long Province. Three were shot down four were badly damaged. Two Americans were killed, two were missing and 12 were wounded. But South Vietnamese headquarters said 142 Viet Cong were killed in the action.

Late Sunday night the guerrillas struck again with 40 mortar rounds fire on the airfield west of Can Tho, causing no damage, officials reported, and a series of attacks on river outposts manned by South Vietnamese militia.

Age Versus Love In Courts

Another case of an aging couple's fight to retain custody of a child long in their care is in the news.

This time the scene is Long Island. Nunzio Marchese, 60, and his wife, Josephine, 55, are in court trying to regain custody of four-year-old Nancy Anne Pagani.

They are the only parents the little girl has ever known and now are trying to adopt her. They have the consent of the girl's natural parents for the adoption.

In a similar case last January, Michael Linuni and his wife won a court fight to adopt a four-year-old child they had kept in their home since she was five days old.

Something needs to be done to eliminate these recurring court battles that are emotionally disturbing to the child and foster parents.

Foundling homes realize the value of a home environment for their youngsters; but a regulation could set the amount of time a child spends with couples considered too old for prospective parents.

The danger here, of course, is the damaging effect of too many home attachments for a child. It would require sensitive placement handling and speedy adoptive procedures by foundling homes.

The cruel yanking of a child from the only home it has ever known and the warm love of devoted foster parents is hardly the solution to the problem.

Those Simon-Pures!

University of Illinois now discloses a third "illegal" athletic fund, besides the two funds that have caused three coaches to resign under improper pressure.

Ever since the facts of collegiate athletics made headlines a generation ago, there has been a perennial flurry of moral judgment on practices so common they scarcely could be thought of as right or wrong. They just were.

The judges borrowed their precepts from the never-never land of simon-purism in athletics — a land that doesn't exist anywhere but the United States. And it does not exist here, except in the minds of dreamers.

There is another side to this tawdry controversy about financial aid for college athletes — the athletes' side.

These young men work hard under fiercely competitive pressure to qualify for the money help they are given. Their efforts produce tens of millions of dollars of gate receipts for the schools they represent and are part and parcel of a massive image-building program that keeps endowment funds and operating budgets enriched.

What they receive for their efforts, aside from a crack at a college education they might not have been able to afford, is a pittance, relative to the revenue they produce.

By any reasonable standard of measurement they work for peon's wages, while coaches, athletic directors, comptrollers and colleges rake in the money. The only payoff they can look forward to is the outside chance of a contract after they leave school to do for big money professionally what they did as amateurs for peanuts.

Their judges owe them an apology. This recurrent ruckus is in actual fact a throat-cutting fight among employers trying to beat one another to the ground for reasons that have nothing to do with simon-pure amateurism.

Who wants it?

Who needs it?

State Of Confusion

By James Marlow

Just two more states and there will be a mismash unlike anything in 180 years.

Thirty - two state legislatures, just two short of a required two-thirds, have asked Congress to call a constitutional convention on the one-man-one-vote decision of the Supreme Court.

This would be the first such convention since 1787 if those other two states acted and Congress agreed. There's doubt it would. For how Congress would agree, or just getting to do it, is all a big fuzz now.

In 1964 the court held that districts in both houses of state legislatures must be "substantially" equal in population. Only a few states met that standard then. The courts have ordered the rest to get in line.

Under the court's thinking, rural areas had long held more legislature seats than they were entitled to in proportion to the number held by the more densely populated cities. This became known as the one-man-one vote decision.

It encountered furious objections which, although one state after another has reapportioned its legislature, haven't disappeared. One of the most vocal objectors was, and is, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

THIS LEADER of the Senate Republicans tried twice, in 1965 and 1966, to get the Senate to approve a constitutional amendment undoing the court's ruling. Each time he lost by seven votes.

His amendment would let the people in a state decide whether they wanted to apportion one branch of their legislature on some basis besides population. This didn't work and something else was tried by the states themselves.

Although the court's decision wasn't made until 1964, it indicated what was coming as early as 1962 when it said legislatures' districts were subject to scrutiny by the federal courts. States took the hint.

In 1963 some of them began petitioning Congress for the constitutional convention. The real petition rush began after the 1964 action. Until now 32 states have asked for the convention. They could take this road to circumvent the court because of Article 5 in the Constitution.

It says two things:

1. — Congress by a two - thirds vote of each house can propose a constitutional amendment which then must be approved by three-fourths of the states. All 25 amendments have been added that way.

2. — Or, two - thirds of the states can ask Congress to call a convention to propose amendments which also would have to be approved by three-fourths of the states, either by their legislatures or by conventions in those states, with Congress deciding which it should be.

While Dirksen and others have labored for such state action, they have plenty of opponents, including Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who announced last week that 26 of the 32 legislatures which have asked for a convention were illegally apportioned when they did the asking. In most cases since then, he said, the courts have ordered them to reapportion themselves and "in most cases they have."

HE SAID FOR Congress to heed the petitions of 26 illegally apportioned legislatures would be like "permitting all Democrats to have two votes in a referendum to determine whether Democrats should have two votes."

Here Proxmire was offering one reason for Congress to ignore the petitions. Confusion seems unlimited in other questions and objections raised. Even if Congress tried to vote approval for a convention, fierce filibusters almost certainly would seek to block it.

Time, one argument goes, has outdated some of the petitions because they were made by some state legislatures no longer in existence and were addressed to the 89th Congress. It's the 90th doing business now.

And if the convention were called, would it be limited to the one man-one vote problem, or could it consider any kind of amendment? If the latter, then the convention might become a nightmare. And how would such a convention be organized? How many delegates would each state have? Congress would have to decide.

Odd Facts

West Virginia has the highest average elevation of any U.S. state east of the Mississippi River. This state is sometimes called "The Coal Bin of the World," leading all states in the production of coal and with reserves of more than 50 billion tons of bituminous coal.

The root system of the giant redwood trees of California is surprisingly shallow, but the roots are so widespread that one tree's roots may spread over an acre of land.

The longest cantilever span in the world is that of the Quebec Bridge (Pont de Quebec) over the St. Lawrence River, in Canada — 18,000 feet between the piers and 3,239 feet overall. It was completed in 1917.

Something To Cry About

Behind Every Woman

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

When the state governors came to Washington, D.C., to meet with President Johnson, Gov. Lurleen Wallace brought along her husband George. This was the first trip to Washington the Alabama governor has taken with her spouse, and from all accounts both of them had a wonderful time.

Art Buchwald

After an all-day briefing with President Johnson, Gov. Lurleen came back to her hotel suite to find George pressing her dress for the White House dinner.

"Did you have a nice day, dear?" Gov. Lurleen asked George.

"It was all right. The fashion show wasn't much, but I enjoyed visiting the antique shops. What did the President say?"

"Oh, he just talked about politics and stuff like that. Nothing you'd be interested in."

"How do you know?" George blushed. "I might very well be interested in politics."

"Don't be foolish, dear. Besides, the briefing was off the record. How did you get along with Mrs. Johnson?"

"OKAY, I GUESS. She wanted to know how many children I have and where I send them to school and if I do the cooking for both of us."

"Isn't that nice! Did you get to visit any museums?"

"No, I bowed out after we saw the inaugural gowns at the Smithsonian Institution. What did the President say, Lurleen?"

"Now, George, you know you're not really interested, so stop pretending. Did you buy any new clothes?"

"No, I didn't."

"But I gave you some money and told you to buy anything you wanted to. After all, you don't get to Washington every day."

"They didn't have my size," George replied. "And besides, we need the money for the household budget. You have no idea what it costs to run the mansion and give dinner parties and entertain all your political cronies."

"Stop complaining, George. Don't forget it was you who encouraged me to run for governor."

"I didn't know what it would be like. I thought we would have a life of our own, that you would be home at night and you would share all your wonderful experiences with me. But you've shut me out of your world. I dont mind cooking, pressing your clothes and cleaning the house as long as I know I'm appreciated."

"But you are appreciated, George. I was just telling the President today that you make the best Southern fried chicken that any governor could wish for."

"You're just saying that to make me feel good."

"DARLING, you know how much I value your companionship, but why should I burden you with the affairs of state when you've got so much on your mind? Don't forget, behind every great woman there's a man, and I should think you'd get great satisfaction out of knowing that you're the man behind me."

"Do you want all these pleats pressed?" George asked.

"Yes, dear. Were there any messages while I was out?"

"Gov. Maddox called, you had a call from the state budget director and Life magazine wanted to know what I am wearing to the White House tonight — the smart alecks."

"Now, George, you have to be nice to Life magazine. They can do a lot for my career."

"Okay, your dress is ready."

"You are sweet. What are you going to do now?"

"I promised to call the wife of the governor of Idaho and give her my recipe for okra and corn bread."

LBJ Free To Run

By Bruce Biossat

Theodore Sorensen suggested recently that U.S. vice presidents who reached the White House through the death of a president have observed the "custom" of not seeking a second full elective term.

He added that President Lyndon Johnson, who came to the White House during John F. Kennedy's first and only term, might follow this "precedent" and not run for re-election in 1968.

There is no such custom and no such precedent.

Altogether, eight vice presidents — John Tyler, Millard Filmore, Andrew Johnson, Chester A. Arthur, Theodore Roosevelt, Calvin Coolidge, Harry Truman and Lyndon Johnson — have attained the White House through presidential death.

Of these eight, the first four — Tyler, Fillmore, Andrew Johnson and Arthur — were never elected to the presidency even once. When they had filled out the terms they took over, their presidential service was ended.

So, not one of these four ever had the chance to decide whether or not to seek a second full elective term.

That leaves three to consider, aside from Lyndon Johnson.

Theodore Roosevelt served 3½ years of the assassinated William McKinley's second term, then a full term of his own. He took himself out of the 1908 race in deference to the "two-term tradition" which up to that time had operated rather fuzzily to check all White House occupants, including those duly elected to two terms as president.

Roosevelt later reversed his field and, in 1912, ran on a third party ticket for a third term. Had he been the Republican nominee, he would have been elected handily. His vote, plus Republican President William Howard Taft's, surpassed Woodrow Wilson's total by 1.3 million.

Calvin Coolidge took over from the deceased Warren Harding in 1923, serving one year and seven months of Harding's term. He was then elected in his own right in 1924.

On Aug. 2, 1927, with more than a year and a half of his full term still to go, he announced: "I do not choose to run for president in 1928."

The late Arthur Schlesinger Sr. wrote that it probably will never be clear whether Coolidge really meant to disqualify himself totally for further presidential duty. His statement did not seem to preclude a draft — but it never came.

One intimate White House observer of that time described Coolidge as deeply chagrind when the 1928 convention chose Herbert Hoover as GOP nominee.

As for Harry Truman, he served all but two months of Franklin Roosevelt's fourth term, plus his own after election in 1948. The decision he made in 1952 not to seek a second full elective term was born in unique circumstances never likely to be repeated.

On Feb. 26, 1951, the last necessary state had ratified the 22nd amendment to the U.S. Constitution, formally limiting elected presidents to two terms.

Truman, being in office, was specifically exempted from this limitation. But he chose, a year later, to observe the spirit of that law.

No other White House occupant had ever had to contemplate an actual legal limitation.

What it boils down to, then, is that only Collidge seems to have made the kind of self-denying choice Sorensen suggests has become a "general custom." And there is doubt how firmly he meant it to stick.

President Johnson today is, therefore, bound by no custom. Nor is he bound by law.

The 22nd amendment specifically states that a vice president who accedes to the presidency during his predecessor's term may have two full elective terms unless he served more than two years of that prior term. Lyndon Johnson served one year and two months of John Kennedy's term.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Seems the cry for passage of school levies still goes on.

Now Wellsville is trying for the same demands as Southern Local asked last fall. There is a difference, however. Southern Local gave teachers and executives a raise before the levy was even voted on. The levy failed, leaving them without funds to carry on.

So the board tried to find an answer to the problem by planning to close three schools, keeping three open 15 hours per day and running two shifts of school. Why do all this?

Because they have, believe it or not, the children at heart.

Finally a citizens' committee took up the matter, raised $1,200 by hard work through individuals soliciting the district and from PTA donations. The levy was then voted on at a special election and passed by a 2-to-1 majority.

The following board meeting, held after the levy passed, the board members, being advised to do so by Mr. Leek, gave themselves a raise of $15 per meeting. They did receive $3 per night.

This being done before any of our leaky roofs or falling plaster was repaired, nothing came out in the paper on this deal.

Next, the clerk of the board and secretary at the high school get a raise, which is fine. I'm sure they must work five hours a day and five days a week also.

The voters of Southern Local Schools have lost faith in the ways of the school board members and our highers-up.

We need a change.

As a student of Beaver Local High School, I am writing this letter in sympathy with the students of Wellsville High School.

In the past, the students of the Beaver Local School District also were faced with a problem similar to that of Wellsville's. We, too, were threatened with being deprived of extra curricular activities. Fortunately, our levy did pass, after a second try.

If football, basketball, track, proms, plays and clubs are taken away from these students, then many will lose their interest in school and many will have too much idle time on their hands.

What about the financially - troubled student who is planning on earning a scholarship from one of these activities? A promising student might have to settle for a poor job while he dreams of college. Is this fair to him?

Wellsville High School is a fine school. If this levy does not pass, what will the students have to show for? Yes, they will still have their school, but not the administration, facilities and spirit that should be found inside.

It is unfortunate that people quibble over taxes when they are being used on the education of their most valuable possession, their children. This is one of the best ways they can use their money, preparing these young adults for the future.

If the voters of Wellsville fail to pass this levy, they are also failing their children.

Coming up in our primary election in May, there is a very important issue concerning Hanover Township in Beaver County, as to whether to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages or not.

We have had a dry township since the early forties and thus have avoided the troubles that go along with the sale of such beverages.

Some would have you believe that the tax revenue would offset and pay for the extra policing that the sale of alcoholic beverages brings, but this is not true and I, first as a Christian and second as a responsible citizen, am against it completely. Age Versus Love In Courts

Another case of an aging couple's fight to retain custody of a child long in their care is in the news.

This time the scene is Long Island. Nunzio Marchese, 60, and his wife, Josephine, 55, are in court trying to regain custody of four-year-old Nancy Anne Pagani.

They are the only parents the little girl has ever known and now are trying to adopt her. They have the consent of the girl's natural parents for the adoption.

Nancy Anne is being kept in a foundling home pending outcome of court proceedings.

In a similar case last January, Michael Linuni and his wife won a court fight to adopt a four-year-old child they had kept in their home since she was five days old.

Something needs to be done to eliminate these recurring court battles that are emotionally disturbing to the child and foster parents.

Foundling homes realize the value of a home environment for their youngsters; but a regulation could set the amount of time a child spends with couples considered too old for prospective parents.

The danger here, of course, is the damaging effect of too many home attachments for a child. It would require sensitive placement handling and speedy adoptive procedures by foundling homes.

The cruel yanking of a child from the only home it has ever known and the warm love of devoted foster parents is hardly the solution to the problem.

Those Simon-Pures!

University of Illinois now discloses a third "illegal" athletic fund, besides the two funds that have caused three coaches to resign under improper pressure.

Ever since the facts of collegiate athletics made headlines a generation ago, there has been a perennial flurry of moral judgment on practices so common they scarcely could be thought of as right or wrong. They just were.

The judges borrowed their precepts from the never-never land of simon-purism in athletics — a land that doesn't exist anywhere but the United States. And it does not exist here, except in the minds of dreamers.

There is another side to this tawdry controversy about financial aid for college athletes — the athletes' side.

These young men work hard under fiercely competitive pressure to qualify for the money help they are given. Their efforts produce tens of millions of dollars of gate receipts for the schools they represent and are part and parcel of a massive image-building program that keeps endowment funds and operating budgets enriched.

What they receive for their efforts, aside from a crack at a college education they might not have been able to afford, is a pittance, relative to the revenue they produce.

By any reasonable standard of measurement they work for peon's wages, while coaches, athletic directors, comptrollers and colleges rake in the money. The only payoff they can look forward to is the outside chance of a contract after they leave school to do for big money professionally what they did as amateurs for peanuts.

Their judges owe them an apology. This recurrent ruckus is in actual fact a throat-cutting fight among employers trying to beat one another to the ground for reasons that have nothing to do with simon-pure amateurism.

Who wants it?

Who needs it?

State Of Confusion

Just two more states and there will be a mismash unlike anything in 180 years.

Thirty - two state legislatures, just two short of a required two-thirds, have asked Congress to call a constitutional convention on the one-man-one-vote decision of the Supreme Court.

This would be the first such convention since 1787 if those other two states acted and Congress agreed. There's doubt it would. For how Congress would agree, or just getting to do it, is all a big fuzz now.

In 1964 the court held that districts in both houses of state legislatures must be "substantially" equal in population. Only a few states met that standard then. The courts have ordered the rest to get in line.

Under the court's thinking, rural areas had long held more legislature seats than they were entitled to in proportion to the number held by the more densely populated cities. This became known as the one-man-one vote decision.

It encountered furious objections which, although one state after another has reapportioned its legislature, haven't disappeared. One of the most vocal objectors was, and is, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

THIS LEADER of the Senate Republicans tried twice, in 1965 and 1966, to get the Senate to approve a constitutional amendment undoing the court's ruling. Each time he lost by seven votes.

His amendment would let the people in a state decide whether they wanted to apportion one branch of their legislature on some basis besides population. This didn't work and something else was tried by the states themselves.

Although the court's decision wasn't made until 1964, it indicated what was coming as early as 1962 when it said legislatures' districts were subject to scrutiny by the federal courts. States took the hint.

In 1963 some of them began petitioning Congress for the constitutional convention. The real petition rush began after the 1964 action. Until now 32 states have asked for the convention. They could take this road to circumvent the court because of Article 5 in the Constitution.

It says two things:

1. — Congress by a two - thirds vote of each house can propose a constitutional amendment which then must be approved by three-fourths of the states. All 25 amendments have been added that way.

2. — Or, two - thirds of the states can ask Congress to call a convention to propose amendments which also would have to be approved by three-fourths of the states, either by their legislatures or by conventions in those states, with Congress deciding which it should be.

While Dirksen and others have labored for such state action, they have plenty of opponents, including Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who announced last week that 26 of the 32 legislatures which have asked for a convention were illegally apportioned when they did the asking. In most cases since then, he said, the courts have ordered them to reapportion themselves and "in most cases they have."

HE SAID FOR Congress to heed the petitions of 26 illegally apportioned legislatures would be like "permitting all Democrats to have two votes in a referendum to determine whether Democrats should have two votes."

Here Proxmire was offering one reason for Congress to ignore the petitions. Confusion seems unlimited in other questions and objections raised. Even if Congress tried to vote approval for a convention, fierce filibusters almost certainly would seek to block it.

Time, one argument goes, has outdated some of the petitions because they were made by some state legislatures no longer in existence and were addressed to the 89th Congress. It's the 90th doing business now.

And if the convention were called, would it be limited to the one man-one vote problem, or could it consider any kind of amendment? If the latter, then the convention might become a nightmare. And how would such a convention be organized? How many delegates would each state have? Congress would have to decide.

Pennsylvania Police Hold State Line 'Beer Check'

Pennsylvania teen-agers' use of beer and other intoxicants purchased in West Virginia was pointed up in a state line traffic check by Pennsylvania state police over the weekend.

One check was undertaken in connection with a documentary television film, made with the assistance of Beaver County District Atty. Robert Masters.

The legal drinking age in West Virginia is 18, while in Pennsylvania it is 21.

In Ohio, anyone over 18 may legally purchase 3.2 beer, but a 21 minimum age is established for high - powered beer and liquor.

Masters said, "There are a number of Beaver County young people who go to Ohio and West Virginia to purchase alcohol. As a result of this drinking, there are crimes and highway mishaps."

Three Pittsburgh youths were arrested at the state line Friday night for illegal possession and transportation of beer.

Kenneth James Vollmer, 19, Anthony Lenker, 19, and William Edward Beuter, 18, were cited by officers for carrying the beer which had been obtained in West Virginia.

Some of the Midland students used as actors were sent into two establishments and were able to purchase beer although they were under 18.

Some of the scenes were filmed at Tonti's Hotel with the owner's permission, the students provided empty beer cans and ginger ale.

The film, entitled "It's a Blast," will be screened April 17 at 8 p. m.

Head Of Regents Charges Bias In Research Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents has charged the federal government with discrimination in the allocation of research funds.

Chancellor John D. Millett made the charge in a letter to Rep. William E. Minshall, an Ohio Republican congressman from Cleveland.

Minshall is a member of the House Appropriations Committee and Millett's letter was designed to bring the discrimination charges before the committee.

Millett said funds for federal income from Ohio and other states were being used by the National Science Foundation to "underwrite intellectual superiority of California, Massachusetts and other states."

He said Ohio received only 2.41 per cent of all National Science Foundation grants in the 1966 fiscal year and only 1.68 per cent of the fellowship awards in Ohio colleges. Yet, he declared, Ohio has 5.28 per cent of the national population and contributes almost 6 per cent of the total tax resources of the federal government.

He said California, with 9.45 per cent of the population, received 21 per cent of fellowship grants and 12.22 per cent of program grants.

Massachusetts, Millett wrote, with only 2.79 per cent of the population received 6.6 per cent of program grants and 18.6 per cent of all fellowship awards.

THE JUDGE granted a continuance until April 3 in the case of Robert A. Berdine, 24, of 210 Jefferson St., cited Saturday at 11 p. m. on Route 7 on a charge of driving 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. Berdine pleaded not guilty.

Thieves Get $2,000 Worth Of Car Tools

An estimated $2,000 worth of tools and auto body repair equipment was taken by thieves who broke into a Wellsville used car agency over the weekend.

Wellsville police said intruders broke into a north window of the M. & A. Motors lot at 241 Wells Ave. some time Saturday night or Sunday morning.

The entry was discovered by Patrolman Charles Amato.

James Stephenson, manager, said the stolen merchandise includes drills, sanders, grinders and complete sets of screwdriver and socket wrenches.

Stephenson said some empty boxes are also missing and speculates the burglars may have loaded the boxes with the loot and passed them through the windows.

All doors were still locked when investigators arrived.

Stephenson said vandals also hit the lot Saturday night when three auto windshields were punctured with BB pellets and a newly-painted car was covered with dirt and walked upon.

Wellsville Police Chief John Hephner said his department is continuing an investigation.

Wants It For Summit Conference

Critics Stall On Handing LBJ Plan For Latin Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate critics of his Vietnam policies are making President Johnson squirm a bit before handing him a resolution of Latin aid support he wants to take to the Punta del Este hemispheric summit conference April 12-14.

They already have stalled the measure to the point where Johnson will not have it in his pocket when he entertains Latin American ambassadors at his Texas ranch this weekend.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has scheduled its next hearing on it for April 3.

Johnson has been on the telephone to Senate friends haranguing them to get action. Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen reported a 30-minute conversation in which Johnson urged him to rally GOP support for the resolution.

As it stands, the resolution, passed by the House would have Congress "recommend" that the United States provide financing for Alliance for Progress educational and economic programs on a matching basis with Latin American nations. It also would put Congress on record for support of a common market for the area.

Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee raised the point that this was the kind of advance commitment Congress gave the President in the Tonkin Gulf resolution in 1964, which Fulbright contends Johnson used to expand the Vietnam war.

Some senators who have seen their protests against intensifying the war bounce off the White House without seeming effect, joined Fulbright to peck away at the current resolution although one war foe, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., is sponsoring the measure.

While they apparently already have succeeded in making the President uncomfortable, the group indicates it doesn't really intend to deny him some resolution.

Fulbright repeatedly has said he is only objecting to "procedure, not substance." He wants individual Latin aid programs checked with Congress and not put into effect by presidential order.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., has challenged Johnson's contention that about $1.5 billion can be added to Latin American aid without cutting back on domestic programs. He objects to the "blank check' aspects of the administration's original proposal.

"The whole concept is fallacious though undoubtedly it's done with good intentions," he said.

The critics are expected to push to say that Congress "supports" Johnson's proposal so long as aid is given "in accordance with constitutional processes.'

It will be up to Johnson to decide whether this represents more than the "empty words" Secretary of State Dean Rusk said would be worse than no resolution at all.

Meanwhile Sunday, U.S. officials made available preliminary figures showing that overall Latin American economic growth in 1966 was less than half the target of the Alliance for Progress.

Crop failures in Brazil and inflation-depression economic troubles in Argentina held the over-all growth rate of income per capita to 1.1 per cent. The goal was 2.5 per cent.

Officials said that 10 of the 18 nations listed surpassed the alliance goal, however. Leader was Panama, up 3.7 per cent.

They noted that a population growth of nearly 3 per cent meant that economies must expand by 5.5 per cent in order to yield the net per capita growth of 2.5 per cent.

Youth Given Term In Car Theft Charge

LISBON — Judge Louis Tobin of Columbiana County Juvenile Court today sentenced Ronald D. Bailey, 18, of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, to five months in the County Jail after he admitted stealing a car March 16 on Broadway, East Liverpool.

Bailey was cited as a juvenile, but observed his 18th birthday Sunday. The judge said he is to be kept as a general prisoner.

The court suspended two months of the sentence on condition Bailey pays car damages to be set by Mitchell Zlatovich of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1, the owner.

James Cramer, 18, of 876 Baxter St., East Liverpool, was sentenced to six months last Monday when he admitted riding with Bailey knowing the car was stolen.

Delbert Cunningham, 18, of 256 Jefferson St., East Liverpool, pleaded not guilty when arraigned on the same charge last week and is scheduled for hearing April 11.

A 17-year-old East Liverpool boy appeared with his parents in Juvenile Court today and admitted he stole six tires Feb. 11 from the Firestone Store warehouse on Oak St.

Judge Tobin sentenced him to three months in detention and, at the request of school authorities, ordered him withdrawn from East Liverpool High School.

Two other East Liverpool youths are awaiting hearings April 11 in connection with the theft of at least 28 new tires from the Firestone warehouse between Jan. 15 and March 17. One is 16 and the other is Gerald Crabtree, 18, of Ravine St., who pleaded not guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the two minors.

There are approximately 800,000 words in the English language.

Boy Rescued When 'Stuck' Hunting Pups

A 6-year-old Chester area boy had to be rescued by Lawrenceville volunteer firemen when he became lodged underneath the family home while searching for some new-born cocker spaniel puppies Saturday afternoon.

He is Curtis Christopher McGurren, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McGurren of Grandview.

Mr. and Mrs. McGurren were at work when the incident occurred, and Mary Fern, 16, their oldest daughter, a junior at Oak Glen High School, summoned the firemen when the boy could not make his way out from a compartment in the block basement.

Ten men on a truck and a squad car responded to the call. Under the direction of Okey Leaisure Jr., fire chief, they used shovels to dig an opening underneath the house and managed to bring the boy out at about 3:30 after being on the scene for some 45 minutes.

Although scared, Curtis was none the worse for the experience, and he reportedly did spot one puppy, an offspring of the family's golden cocker spaniel, "Patty."

Youth Charged In Girl Slaying

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The body of an 8-year-old girl was found in a pit in a wooded section of southeast Akron Sunday night and police charged a young neighbor with first-degree murder.

Danny Gruic, 21, who has a record of mental retardation, according to the prosecutor's office, was arrested at his home early today, police said. He was scheduled to appear in municipal court at 9 a.m. today for arraignment.

The victim, Helen Irene Richards, was reported missing by her mother Sunday night. The girl had been visiting a friend and failed to return home.

Police launched a massive search. One search party stumbled onto footprints in the wooded area, followed them and found the girl's battered body in the board-covered pit, police said. Investigators said she had been beaten, but an autopsy was planned.

Seek Pay Hike, Shorter Hours

Firemen In Kansas City Set For Walkout Tuesday

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Firemen are continuing with plans that will leave Kansas City virtually without fire protection by Tuesday morning. They are seeking higher wages and shorter hours.

Stanton Gladden, a battalion chief and president of the Fire Fighters Local 42, said two more men in each company would take sick leave today. About sixty reported sick Sunday in the first move toward a walkout.

Gladden said all other men supporting the move will report they are sick Tuesday. In a similar dispute last summer only a handful of firemen opposed the union.

Mayor Ilus Davis said the city has a plan of action if the walkout becomes complete. He wouldn't disclose the details.

"We don't deal in threats," the mayor said.

Last summer, at the city's request, the National Guard was called out to protect the fire stations, although firemen remained on duty during that dispute.

The climax will come during the city election Tuesday, in which the 12-member city council and a mayor are elected.

Charles Shafer, attorney for the firemen's union, is a candidate for councilman, a post he formerly held.

Gladden has accused the present council of failing to keep its promises. The union has urged defeat of the council majority in the election.

Mayor Davis, seeking re-election, said the "threat to stop fire protection, carried out, would be an irresponsible and vicious attempt to blackmail the voters."

"I can't believe that most ot the firemen would leave their fellow citizens unprotected in order to further the political ambitions of Gladden and Shafer," Davis said.

Gladden said the stoppage was not an official strike or an action by the union.

"It's just a spontaneous action of the men," Gladden asserted.

The firemen are demanding a 10-per cent wage increase and reduction of their work week from 56 hours to 50. There are about 850 firemen, and the average salary is $6,700 a year. They are on duty 24 hours and off 48 hours.

The council has offered a five-per cent cost of living wage increase to all city employes, but the firemen say that is not enough for them.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has scheduled its next hearing on it for April 3.

Johnson has been on the telephone to Senate friends haranguing them to get action. Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen reported a 30-minute conversation in which Johnson urged him to rally GOP support for the resolution.

As it stands, the resolution, passed by the House would have Congress "recommend" that the United States provide financing for Alliance for Progress educational and economic programs on a matching basis with Latin American nations. It also would put Congress on record for support of a common market for the area.

Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee raised the point that this was the kind of advance commitment Congress gave the President in the Tonkin Gulf resolution in 1964, which Fulbright contends Johnson used to expand the Vietnam war.

Some senators who have seen their protests against intensifying the war bounce off the White House without seeming effect, joined Fulbright to peck away at the current resolution although one war foe, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., is sponsoring the measure.

While they apparently already have succeeded in making the President uncomfortable, the group indicates it doesn't really intend to deny him some resolution.

Fulbright repeatedly has said he is only objecting to "procedure, not substance." He wants individual Latin aid programs checked with Congress and not put into effect by presidential order.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., has challenged Johnson's contention that about $1.5 billion can be added to Latin American aid without cutting back on domestic programs. He objects to the "blank check' aspects of the administration's original proposal.

"The whole concept is fallacious though undoubtedly it's done with good intentions," he said.

The critics are expected to push to say that Congress "supports" Johnson's proposal so long as aid is given "in accordance with constitutional processes."

It will be up to Johnson to decide whether this represents more than the "empty words" Secretary of State Dean Rusk said would be worse than no resolution at all.

Meanwhile Sunday, U.S. officials made available preliminary figures showing that overall Latin American economic growth in 1966 was less than half the target of the Alliance for Progress.

Crop failures in Brazil and inflation-depression economic troubles in Argentina held the over-all growth rate of income per capita to 1.1 per cent. The goal was 2.5 per cent.

Officials said that 10 of the 18 nations listed surpassed the alliance goal, however. Leader was Panama, up 3.7 per cent.

They noted that a population growth of nearly 3 per cent meant that economies must expand by 5.5 per cent in order to yield the net per capita growth of 2.5 per cent.

Youth Given Term In Car Theft Charge

LISBON — Judge Louis Tobin of Columbiana County Juvenile Court today sentenced Ronald D. Bailey, 18, of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, to five months in the County Jail after he admitted stealing a car March 16 on Broadway, East Liverpool.

Bailey was cited as a juvenile, but observed his 18th birthday Sunday. The judge said he is to be kept as a general prisoner.

The court suspended two months of the sentence on condition Bailey pays car damages to be set by Mitchell Zlatovich of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1, the owner.

James Cramer, 18, of 876 Baxter St., East Liverpool, was sentenced to six months last Monday when he admitted riding with Bailey knowing the car was stolen.

Delbert Cunningham, 18, of 256 Jefferson St., East Liverpool, pleaded not guilty when arraigned on the same charge last week and is scheduled for hearing April 11.

A 17-year-old East Liverpool boy appeared with his parents in Juvenile Court today and admitted he stole six tires Feb. 11 from the Firestone Store warehouse on Oak St.

Judge Tobin sentenced him to three months in detention and, at the request of school authorities, ordered him withdrawn from East Liverpool High School.

Two other East Liverpool youths are awaiting hearings April 11 in connection with the theft of at least 28 new tires from the Firestone warehouse between Jan. 15 and March 17. One is 16 and the other is Gerald Crabtree, 18, of Ravine St., who pleaded not guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the two minors.

Boy Rescued When 'Stuck' Hunting Pups

A 6-year-old Chester area boy had to be rescued by Lawrenceville volunteer firemen when he became lodged underneath the family home while searching for some new-born cocker spaniel puppies Saturday afternoon.

He is Curtis Christopher McGurren, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McGurren of Grandview.

Mr. and Mrs. McGurren were at work when the incident occurred, and Mary Fern, 16, their oldest daughter, a junior at Oak Glen High School, summoned the firemen when the boy could not make his way out from a compartment in the block basement.

Ten men on a truck and a squad car responded to the call. Under the direction of Okey Leaisure Jr., fire chief, they used shovels to dig an opening underneath the house and managed to bring the boy out at about 3:30 after being on the scene for some 45 minutes.

Although scared, Curtis was none the worse for the experience, and he reportedly did spot one puppy, an offspring of the family's golden cocker spaniel, "Patty."

Youth Charged In Girl Slaying

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The body of an 8-year-old girl was found in a pit in a wooded section of southeast Akron Sunday night and police charged a young neighbor with first-degree murder.

Danny Gruic, 21, who has a record of mental retardation, according to the prosecutor's office, was arrested at his home early today, police said. He was scheduled to appear in municipal court at 9 a.m. today for arraignment.

The victim, Helen Irene Richards, was reported missing by her mother Sunday night. The girl had been visiting a friend and failed to return home.

Police launched a massive search. One search party stumbled onto footprints in the wooded area, followed them and found the girl's battered body in the board-covered pit, police said. Investigators said she had been beaten, but an autopsy was planned.

Seek Pay Hike, Shorter Hours

Firemen In Kansas City Set For Walkout Tuesday

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Firemen are continuing with plans that will leave Kansas City virtually without fire protection by Tuesday morning. They are seeking higher wages and shorter hours.

Stanton Gladden, a battalion chief and president of the Fire Fighters Local 42, said two more men in each company would take sick leave today. About sixty reported sick Sunday in the first move toward a walkout.

Gladden said all other men supporting the move will report they are sick Tuesday. In a similar dispute last summer only a handful of firemen opposed the union.

Mayor Ilus Davis said the city has a plan of action if the walkout becomes complete. He wouldn't disclose the details.

"We don't deal in threats," the mayor said.

Last summer, at the city's request, the National Guard was called out to protect the fire stations, although firemen remained on duty during that dispute.

The climax will come during the city election Tuesday, in which the 12-member city council and a mayor are elected.

Charles Shafer, attorney for the firemen's union, is a candidate for councilman, a post he formerly held.

Gladden has accused the present council of failing to keep its promises. The union has urged defeat of the council majority in the election.

Mayor Davis, seeking re-election, said the "threat to stop fire protection, carried out, would be an irresponsible and vicious attempt to blackmail the voters."

"I can't believe that most of the firemen would leave their fellow citizens unprotected in order to further the political ambitions of Gladden and Shafer," Davis said.

Gladden said the stoppage was not an official strike or an action by the union.

"It's just a spontaneous action of the men," Gladden asserted.

The firemen are demanding a 10-per cent wage increase and reduction of their work week from 56 hours to 50. There are about 850 firemen, and the average salary is $6,700 a year. They are on duty 24 hours and off 48 hours.

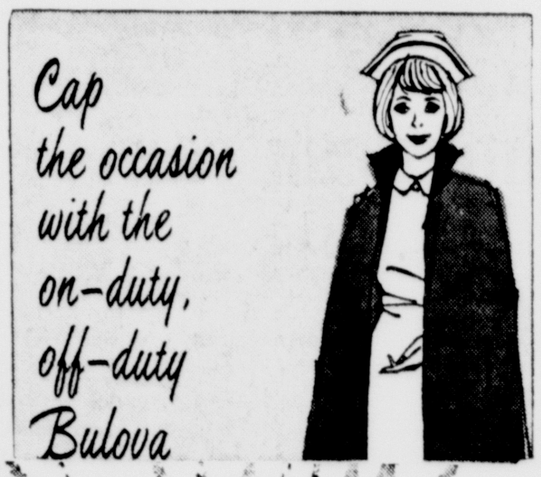

The council has offered a five-per cent cost of living wage increase to all city employes, but the firemen say that is not enough for them.

2 Hospitalized After Accidents

A Wellsville youth struck by a car while riding a motorbike and a city man injured in a car-truck mishap were hospitalized over the weekend.

The two were among five injured as the result of seven area traffic accidents Saturday and Sunday, according to the Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

John Madden, 17, son of William Madden of 214 3rd St., Wellsville, is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered when his motorbike was struck by a car operated by Paul E. Clapsaddle, 50, of Lincoln St., Salineville, Saturday at 9:30 p. m. on County Rd. 418, two miles north of Wellsville.

OFFICERS said Clapsaddle, northbound, started to pass a car that had stopped and hit the oncoming motorbike.

Gale F. Hooper, 53, of 907 Vine St. is in "fairly good" condition today at Rochester General Hospital with severe injuries suffered in a car - truck accident Saturday at 3:55 p. m. on Old Route 30, a mile and a half north of East Liverpool.

Officers said a 1967 sedan operated by Hooper and a 1955 half - ton pickup truck operated by Evelyn N. Fitzsimmons, 43, of Westfield figured in the mishap.

Hooper suffered a fractured skull, contusions and lacerations of the head and a possible fracture of the left hand. He was taken to City Hospital and then transferred to Rochester.

Jay Pelley of the River Rd., a passenger in the Hooper car, was treated for contusions of the head.

JERRY J. Blaschak, 29, of 415 McLain Rd., Wellsville, was treated at the hospital for contusions of the chest suffered when his car wrecked on the Y. & O. Rd., two and three-tenths miles south of Route 30 Sunday at 12:45 a. m.

Officers said he lost control when his car drifted off the right side. The car then swerved off the left side and went through a fence owned by Ernest Brooks of Armstrong Ln.

A tractor - trailer truck driven by Paul Foulks, 42, of Lisbon R. D. 3 and a pickup truck operated by Eugene J. Brown, 14, also of Lisbon R. D. 3 collided Sunday at 11:40 a. m. on Township Rd. 895, a mile and seven - tenths west of Route 7.

The youth was headed west when he lost control of the pickup, went left of center and hit the oncoming tractor - trailer rig. The youth was cited for driving without an operator's permit.

Edwin C. Knight, 45, of MC 22 was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his 1966 sedan hit the rear of a car operated by Eva O. Staley, 52, of Ritman Sunday at 5:40 p.m. on the Y. & O. Rd. at the intersection with Route 30.

The woman stopped at the intersection, started out and then stopped again officers said. Knight halted the first time, but failed to do so the second time.

A PATROL cruiser was damaged in a mishap Saturday at 11 p. m. at the Westgate School parking lot.

Patrolman Leonard J. Hephner, 27, of 520 E. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, halted Robert A. Berdine, 24, of 210 Jefferson St. for a traffic violation. He parked behind the Berdine car, which drifted backwards into the front end of the cruiser. Some $300 damage resulted to the cruiser.

Cars operated by Wallace I. Knode, 71, of Route 170, East Palestine, and Bedford R. Washburn, 25, of 126 S. Main St., Columbiana, were involved in a collision Saturday at 10:35 a.m. on Route 7, six miles north of Route 14.

Tanker

Beaches at Gevey, Portreath, Porthtowan, St. Agnes and Perranporth also were affected. Oil was washed ashore at Newquay, Cornwall's leading resort, and the freshening gale threatened miles more of the holiday coastline.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson interrupted his vacation on the Scilly Islands for a meeting with five Cabinet ministers and warned that the government was "not prepared to wait indefinitely and see the ship break up on the rocks with all the damage that would cause."

Shortly after the tanker's back broke amidships and both her stern and bow were awash the British destroyer Delight went out at dawn to inspect the situation.

The Dutch salvage tug Utrecht reported the big ship must be considered a total loss. A British insurance spokesman said the vessel was insured for nearly $16.8 million and about 40 per cent of the liability is covered in the London market.

Vietnam

Dinh Diem on Nov. 1, 1963. Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, nullified virtually all that charter's provisions for representative government and civil liberties.

The new constitution provides for an independent judiciary and a two-house legislature under a modified presidential form of government much like those in South Korea and France.

Informants said the armed forces council needed two votes to approve the constitution as written. Some military leaders feared that it did not provide a sufficiently strong executive branch.

Sources in the U.S. Embassy said Monday that Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had urged the Vietnamese leaders not to present a military candidate for president at the same time they approved the constitution to avoid intensifying regional rivalries.

Most of South Vietnam's military leaders are refugees from North Vietnam. Southern civilian politicians accuse them of trying to maintain themselves in office.

16 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

By The Associated Press

A sunny Easter holiday coupled with mild temperatures saw thousands of motorists flock to Ohio's highways and streets, and the price paid was tragic.

At least 16 persons were traffic casualties over the weekend, an average death toll for the period 6 p.m. Friday - Sunday midnight.

The state's worst accident was a one - car crash near Cleveland on Saturday which claimed the lives of three teenagers.

Deaths reported since noon Saturday:

Saturday

James Blair, 19, North Olmsted; Fonda Collins, 17, East Cleveland, and Donna Gnagey, 16, East Cleveland, when the auto driven by Blair ran off a road and hit two trees in Hunting Valley near Cleveland.

Nicholas Diaiovanni, 29, Parma Heights, when his motorcycle collided with a car making a left turn off Ohio 57 south of Elyria.

Mrs. Danelle Morris, 23, Columbus, when the car she occupied with her husband and child was rammed from the rear by another auto on Columbus' North Freeway (Interstate 71).

Richard H. Mabe, 43, Fremont, whose auto—termed "defective" by Highway Patrol investigators—wrecked on U.S. 6 near Fremont.

Sunday

Brian E. Sebring, 24, Wauseon, and his passenger, Anthony P. Thomas, 19, Swanton, when their car and another auto collided on U.S. 20A just west of Delta in Fulton County.

John Breidenbauch Jr., 3, Dayton, of injuries received Saturday night when his parents' auto was involved in a four-car crash in Dayton.

Robert Bodnar, 18, North Madison, whose car left a Lake County road 12 miles east of Painesville and hit a tree.

Marine Lance Cpl. John E. Scott, 20, Albuquerque, N.M., believed hitchhiking home on leave from Cherry Point, S.C., struck by a car as he tried to run across Columbus' East Freeway (Interstate 70).

Mrs. Janet E. Campbell, 31, Newark, when two autos collided at a U.S. 22 intersection in northern Perry County.

Easter

Berlin, the first time the Easter disarmament demonstrations that take place elsewhere in West Germany were held in the city. Some marchers carried signs against the "U.S. war" in Vietnam.

In the United States, hundreds of thousands attended sunrise services in generally good weather. New York City's traditional Easter parade along Fifth Avenue was marked by many fur coats and relatively few frilly hats.

New York's temperatures were in the 50's but many among the 220,000 holiday strollers remembered the heavy snow and cold of last week. The parade included a few miniskirts, one on a bearded man, and a white poodle who wore a red jacket and white helmet and sat on a motorcycle.

Mexico City police arrested more than 3,000 pranksters who observed the Easter custom of drenching strollers and motorists with water. Thousands of persons returned to the Mexican capital late Sunday night after Holy Week vacations. Hundreds of government agencies, banks, stores and industries were closed at least three days during the week, and beach resorts reported record crowds.

Nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are the three most important elements in fertilizers.

The youth was headed west when he lost control of the pickup, went left of center and hit the oncoming tractor - trailer rig. The youth was cited for driving without an operator's permit.

Edwin C. Knight, 45, of MC 22 was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his 1966 sedan hit the rear of a car operated by Eva O. Staley, 52, of Ritman Sunday at 5:40 p.m. on the Y. & O. Rd. at the intersection with Route 30.

The woman stopped at the intersection, started out and then stopped again officers said. Knight halted the first time, but failed to do so the second time.

A PATROL cruiser was damaged in a mishap Saturday at 11 p. m. at the Westgate School parking lot.

Patrolman Leonard J. Hephner, 27, of 520 E. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, halted Robert A. Berdine, 24, of 210 Jefferson St. for a traffic violation. He parked behind the Berdine car, which drifted backwards into the front end of the cruiser. Some $300 damage resulted to the cruiser.

Cars operated by Wallace I. Knode, 71, of Route 170, East Palestine, and Bedford R. Washburn, 25, of 126 S. Main St., Columbiana, were involved in a collision Saturday at 10:35 a.m. on Route 7, six miles north of Route 14.

Tanker

Beaches at Gevey, Portreath, Porthtowan, St. Agnes and Perranporth also were affected. Oil was washed ashore at Newquay, Cornwall's leading resort, and the freshening gale threatened miles more of the holiday coastline.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson interrupted his vacation on the Scilly Islands for a meeting with five Cabinet ministers and warned that the government was "not prepared to wait indefinitely and see the ship break up on the rocks with all the damage that would cause."

Shortly after the tanker's back broke amidships and both her stern and bow were awash the British destroyer Delight went out at dawn to inspect the situation.

The Dutch salvage tug Utrecht reported the big ship must be considered a total loss. A British insurance spokesman said the vessel was insured for nearly $16.8 million and about 40 per cent of the liability is covered in the London market.

Vietnam

Dinh Diem on Nov. 1, 1963. Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, nullified virtually all that charter's provisions for representative government and civil liberties.

The new constitution provides for an independent judiciary and a two-house legislature under a modified presidential form of government much like those in South Korea and France.

Informants said the armed forces council needed two votes to approve the constitution as written. Some military leaders feared that it did not provide a sufficiently strong executive branch.

Sources in the U.S. Embassy said Monday that Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had urged the Vietnamese leaders not to present a military candidate for president at the same time they approved the constitution to avoid intensifying regional rivalries.

Most of South Vietnam's military leaders are refugees from North Vietnam. Southern civilian politicians accuse them of trying to maintain themselves in office.

16 More Killed In Ohio Traffic

By The Associated Press

A sunny Easter holiday coupled with mild temperatures saw thousands of motorists flock to Ohio's highways and streets, and the price paid was tragic.

At least 16 persons were traffic casualties over the weekend, an average death toll for the period 6 p.m. Friday - Sunday midnight.

The state's worst accident was a one - car crash near Cleveland on Saturday which claimed the lives of three teenagers.

Deaths reported since noon Saturday:

Saturday

James Blair, 19, North Olmsted; Fonda Collins, 17, East Cleveland, and Donna Gnagey, 16, East Cleveland, when the auto driven by Blair ran off a road and hit two trees in Hunting Valley near Cleveland.

Nicholas Diaiovanni, 29, Parma Heights, when his motorcycle collided with a car making a left turn off Ohio 57 south of Elyria.

Mrs. Danelle Morris, 23, Columbus, when the car she occupied with her husband and child was rammed from the rear by another auto on Columbus' North Freeway (Interstate 71).

Richard H. Mabe, 43, Fremont, whose auto—termed "defective" by Highway Patrol investigators—wrecked on U.S. 6 near Fremont.

Sunday

Brian E. Sebring, 24, Wauseon, and his passenger, Anthony P. Thomas, 19, Swanton, when their car and another auto collided on U.S. 20A just west of Delta in Fulton County.

John Breidenbauch Jr., 3, Dayton, of injuries received Saturday night when his parents' auto was involved in a four-car crash in Dayton.

Robert Bodnar, 18, North Madison, whose car left a Lake County road 12 miles east of Painesville and hit a tree.

Marine Lance Cpl. John E. Scott, 20, Albuquerque, N.M., believed hitchhiking home on leave from Cherry Point, S.C., struck by a car as he tried to run across Columbus' East Freeway (Interstate 70).

Mrs. Janet E. Campbell, 31, Newark, when two autos collided at a U.S. 22 intersection in northern Perry County.

Easter

Berlin, the first time the Easter disarmament demonstrations that take place elsewhere in West Germany were held in the city. Some marchers carried signs against the "U.S. war" in Vietnam.

In the United States, hundreds of thousands attended sunrise services in generally good weather. New York City's traditional Easter parade along Fifth Avenue was marked by many fur coats and relatively few frilly hats.

New York's temperatures were in the 50's but many among the 220,000 holiday strollers remembered the heavy snow and cold of last week. The parade included a few miniskirts, one on a bearded man, and a white poodle who wore a red jacket and white helmet and sat on a motorcycle.

Mexico City police arrested more than 3,000 pranksters who observed the Easter custom of drenching strollers and motorists with water. Thousands of persons returned to the Mexican capital late Sunday night after Holy Week vacations. Hundreds of government agencies, banks, stores and industries were closed at least three days during the week, and beach resorts reported record crowds.

Nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium are the three most important elements in fertilizers.

Humphrey

assault some of the troops evaporate."

Humphrey's pep talk to the mission staff was obviously aimed at countering the constant criticism that Americans read and hear in Europe. He said Americans have a right to ask their allies denouncing the U.S. role in Vietnam: "What is more important here than there?"

Humphrey arrived with an argument that he is expected to carry to other capitals in Europe — the urgent need for a treaty to curb the spread of nuclear weapons.

The vice president said during a brief airport ceremony at the first stop on his two-week European tour that the negotiations for a nonproliferation treaty are a "life-and-death issue."

The vice president is making the first extended swing through Western Europe by a top administration official since the late President John F. Kennedy's 1963 trip. He will discuss a variety of problems with foreign leaders and U.S. officials in six countries.

Humphrey's mission comes at a time of some friction in U.S.-European relations, partly due to U.S. efforts to seek agreement with the Soviet Union in such areas as nuclear nonproliferation.

U.S. officials said one of the chief aims of the vice president's trip is to assure European leaders the United States is not subordinating its European interests to a desire for East-West agreements.

The nuclear negotiations have been recessed for six weeks to give the United States more time to try to convince its allies —particularly West Germany— to accept the proposed treaty. West Germany and other industrial nations fear the treaty will have an adverse effect on their development of nuclear power for industrial purposes.

Humphrey, arriving in Switzerland after a seven-hour flight from Washington, told a small early morning gathering at the airport that the nuclear as well as the Kennedy round trade and tariff talks could show the way toward "peace and progress in the world."

Humphrey was scheduled to discuss the nonproliferation and trade negotiations today with U.S. Ambassadors William C. Foster, William Roth and Michael Blumenthal.

Humphrey in his travels to the Netherlands, West Germany, Italy, Britain, France and Belgium also has the mission of stressing the need for prompt action on the Kennedy round trade negotiations being conducted in Geneva.

The U.S. trade act, authorizing the U.S. role in the negotiations, expires June 30, and U.S. officials note there have been increasing protectionist sounds coming from Congress.

Milk

Middle Tennessee and south central Kentucky.

Lawyers for the Teamsters Union delayed the enforcement of an injunction against the milk withholding action in Chancery Court at Nashville by petitioning for a U.S. District Court order in their favor. A hearing on the motion was set for today.

More than 300 NFO, Teamsters and other pickets appeared early today at major dairies in Nashville and a dairy spokesman said milk would be delivered only to hospitals.

Pickets also appeared at dairies in several Pennsylvania communities early today.

Sixteen NFO pickets appeared at Abbot Dairies in Philadelphia, announced they had been recognized by the Teamsters, and told police they would not allow milk trucks to enter or leave the plant. An Abbott spokesman said the Teamsters were not supporting the NFO.

Red Guards Rage Around Russian Car

MOSCOW (AP) — Red Guards raged around a car carrying Soviet diplomats in Peking for 6½ hours Sunday in the worst incident against Russians in the Chinese capital in a month, the Soviet news agency Tass reported today.

In a dispatch from the Chinese capital, Tass said the demonstration was similar to those that occurred for 18 days outside the Soviet Embassy in Peking beginning Jan. 26. Those demonstrations were sparked by Peking's charges that a group of Chinese students had been manhandled in Moscow.

Tass did not indicate what led to the latest incident, but observers in Moscow suggested it was touched off by the Soviet government's award of honors Saturday to 189 Russians in Peking for their courage and self-control during the January and February troubles.

Moscow radio also reported today that a new wave of political suppression is engulfing Peking, while fears of drought and spring rice crop failure are plaguing China's southern provinces.

Court Holds Up Pennsy, NYC Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court held up the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads today.

Justice Tom C. Clark, announcing the 5-4 decision, said the merger should be delayed until the Interstate Commerce Commission determines the fate of smaller railroads.

Clark made it clear the court was not passing on the validity of the merger, the biggest corporate union in the history of American business.

Delay had been requested by the Justice Department and by nine other railroads.

The proposed $6-billion merger had been under study and discussion by the Interstate Commerce Commission for some 10 years. It approved the deal last April, saying the merger could "fall apart" by delay.

Altogether, the 35 presidents of the United States have had 122 children (72 sons and 50 daughters).

ment heads the available funds are nearly sufficient to cover wage raises and improved fringe benefits offered to the employes last week. The total cost of the offer estimated at about $30,000.

The employes were offered the alternative of a general 4 per cent raise or a $10-a-month raise coupled with city payment of hospital and surgical insurance premiums for employes' departments.

Police and firemen said the 4 per cent hike would amount to $17.60 a month for them. The value of the alternative offer is $22.99 a month, as insurance premiums are $12.99 for dependents.

Police and firemen countered with a request for a 10 per cent raise — half their original demand. Unionized workers filed a counter proposition asking $20 more a month.

In each instance, the city offered the three groups an improved vacation plan and paid holidays. Police and firemen also were offered a $50 boost in the annual uniform allowance, raising it to $150.

In the meeting Saturday night, Council and the administration pointed out the appropriation cannot legally exceed the amount of revenue fixed in the certificare of estimated resources prepared by the budget commission.

The figures show that general property tax will be down $6,000 from 1966 and that there will be a $17,000 drop in income from other sources — such things as intangible taxes, personal property taxes and inheritance tax.

The revenue for the general fund in 1967 is comprised of: $347,808.30 from taxes and other sources; $42,314 from the 1-mill firemen's levy and $325,560.14 from the city income tax.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q.—What can I do if the fudge I am making hardens in the bowl and cannot be poured?

A.—Add one tablespoon of milk and two or three tablespoons of corn syrup, and beat at 15-minute speed in an electric mixer until smooth. Pour immediately.

Q.—What can I do about fine hairline cracks that have occurred in my plaster ceilings and walls?

A.—These can be filled in without use of spackle or plaster by using ordinary sticks of white chalk. Rub vigorously back and forth over the crack until it is filled in. On white ceilings this forms an excellent temporary repair which will need no further touching up until time for the next paint job.

Middle Tennessee and south central Kentucky.

Lawyers for the Teamsters Union delayed the enforcement of an injunction against the milk withholding action in Chancery Court at Nashville by petitioning for a U.S. District Court order in their favor. A hearing on the motion was set for today.

More than 300 NFO, Teamsters and other pickets appeared early today at major dairies in Nashville and a dairy spokesman said milk would be delivered only to hospitals.

Pickets also appeared at dairies in several Pennsylvania communities early today.

Sixteen NFO pickets appeared at Abbot Dairies in Philadelphia, announced they had been recognized by the Teamsters, and told police they would not allow milk trucks to enter or leave the plant. An Abbott spokesman said the Teamsters were not supporting the NFO.

assault some of the troops evaporate."

Humphrey's pep talk to the mission staff was obviously aimed at countering the constant criticism that Americans read and hear in Europe. He said Americans have a right to ask their allies denouncing the U.S. role in Vietnam: "What is more important here than there?"

Humphrey arrived with an argument that he is expected to carry to other capitals in Europe — the urgent need for a treaty to curb the spread of nuclear weapons.

The vice president said during a brief airport ceremony at the first stop on his two-week European tour that the negotiations for a nonproliferation treaty are a "life-and-death issue."

The vice president is making the first extended swing through Western Europe by a top administration official since the late President John F. Kennedy's 1963 trip. He will discuss a variety of problems with foreign leaders and U.S. officials in six countries.

Humphrey's mission comes at a time of some friction in U.S.-European relations, partly due to U.S. efforts to seek agreement with the Soviet Union in such areas as nuclear nonproliferation.

U.S. officials said one of the chief aims of the vice president's trip is to assure European leaders the United States is not subordinating its European interests to a desire for East-West agreements.

The nuclear negotiations have been recessed for six weeks to give the United States more time to try to convince its allies —particularly West Germany— to accept the proposed treaty. West Germany and other industrial nations fear the treaty will have an adverse effect on their development of nuclear power for industrial purposes.

Humphrey, arriving in Switzerland after a seven-hour flight from Washington, told a small early morning gathering at the airport that the nuclear as well as the Kennedy round trade and tariff talks could show the way toward "peace and progress in the world."

Humphrey was scheduled to discuss the nonproliferation and trade negotiations today with U.S. Ambassadors William C. Foster, William Roth and Michael Blumenthal.

Humphrey in his travels to the Netherlands, West Germany, Italy, Britain, France and Belgium also has the mission of stressing the need for prompt action on the Kennedy round trade negotiations being conducted in Geneva.

The U.S. trade act, authorizing the U.S. role in the negotiations, expires June 30, and U.S. officials note there have been increasing protectionist sounds coming from Congress.

Red Guards Rage Around Russian Car

MOSCOW (AP) — Red Guards raged around a car carrying Soviet diplomats in Peking for 6½ hours Sunday in the worst incident against Russians in the Chinese capital in a month, the Soviet news agency Tass reported today.

In a dispatch from the Chinese capital, Tass said the demonstration was similar to those that occurred for 18 days outside the Soviet Embassy in Peking beginning Jan. 26. Those demonstrations were sparked by Peking's charges that a group of Chinese students had been manhandled in Moscow.

Tass did not indicate what led to the latest incident, but observers in Moscow suggested it was touched off by the Soviet government's award of honors Saturday to 189 Russians in Peking for their courage and self-control during the January and February troubles.

Moscow radio also reported today that a new wave of political suppression is engulfing Peking, while fears of drought and spring rice crop failure are plaguing China's southern provinces.

Court Holds Up Pennsy, NYC Merger

Justice Tom C. Clark, announcing the 5-4 decision, said the merger should be delayed until the Interstate Commerce Commission determines the fate of smaller railroads.

Clark made it clear the court was not passing on the validity of the merger, the biggest corporate union in the history of American business.

Delay had been requested by the Justice Department and by nine other railroads.

The proposed $6-billion merger had been under study and discussion by the Interstate Commerce Commission for some 10 years. It approved the deal last April, saying the merger could "fall apart" by delay.

Altogether, the 35 presidents of the United States have had 122 children (72 sons and 50 daughters).

ment heads the available funds are nearly sufficient to cover wage raises and improved fringe benefits offered to the employes last week. The total cost of the offer estimated at about $30,000.

The employes were offered the alternative of a general 4 per cent raise or a $10-a-month raise coupled with city payment of hospital and surgical insurance premiums for employes' departments.

Police and firemen said the 4 per cent hike would amount to $17.60 a month for them. The value of the alternative offer is $22.99 a month, as insurance premiums are $12.99 for dependents.

Police and firemen countered with a request for a 10 per cent raise — half their original demand. Unionized workers filed a counter proposition asking $20 more a month.

In each instance, the city offered the three groups an improved vacation plan and paid holidays. Police and firemen also were offered a $50 boost in the annual uniform allowance, raising it to $150.

In the meeting Saturday night, Council and the administration pointed out the appropriation cannot legally exceed the amount of revenue fixed in the certificare of estimated resources prepared by the budget commission.

The figures show that general property tax will be down $6,000 from 1966 and that there will be a $17,000 drop in income from other sources — such things as intangible taxes, personal property taxes and inheritance tax.

The revenue for the general fund in 1967 is comprised of: $347,808.30 from taxes and other sources; $42,314 from the 1-mill firemen's levy and $325,560.14 from the city income tax.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q.—What can I do if the fudge I am making hardens in the bowl and cannot be poured?

A.—Add one tablespoon of milk and two or three tablespoons of corn syrup, and beat at 15-minute speed in an electric mixer until smooth. Pour immediately.

Q.—What can I do about fine hairline cracks that have occurred in my plaster ceilings and walls?

A.—These can be filled in without use of spackle or plaster by using ordinary sticks of white chalk. Rub vigorously back and forth over the crack until it is filled in. On white ceilings this forms an excellent temporary repair which will need no further touching up until time for the next paint job.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: How in the world do you get thick tomato paste out of those little cans without leaving most of it at the bottom and on the scraping, dipping, spooning, etc., and always end up with a mess. — FRUSTRATED SAL.

Dear Sal: Why not try my way and save wear and tear on both our nerves?

Simply open BOTH ends of the can, scraping one end on the edge of the can as you remove it. With the other end STILL IN PLACE, just push it right through the can with two fingers, letting it fall in the pot.

Swish, clean as a whistle!

Then pick the other end off the top of the paste, scrape it against the edge of the pan, and you've not wasted a tasty bit!

Now look and see how clean your can is. Nary a bit left. Too bad we can't clean our closets that quickly!

HELOISE.

Dear Heloise: Here is a hint my eleven-year-old granddaughter thought of.

When you are going away and want to leave a note for someone, write it on an envelope. Turn the top open, wet it and stick it on your door inside your screen door.

FLORENCE CORDELL.

Dear Heloise: We do quite a lot of entertaining and I always have to buy new candles for the table each time. I've collected a box full of half used candles.

Yesterday, I discovered I could reuse these candles by taking a knife and removing the wax around the wick about one half inch, and cutting off the burnt part of the wick.

They are shorter, but look nice and new again.

TANYA INGMIRE.

Dear Heloise: It is annoying and wasteful to start to use a steel soap-filled pad the second time and find it unusable because of rust.

Next time you use a new one try wapping it in foil and sealing it. All my troubles ended this way—

MRS. GENE ADAMS.

Dear Heloise: When one of our children are sick with a fever, I always freeze popsicles for them out of fruit juice.

When no other liquids will be taken, they will always eat the nice cold popsicles.

Make different flavors so they can have a choice.

FAITHFUL FRIEND.

Dear Heloise: Since we live in a hard water area, I have learned to wash all my glassware and stainless steel pans with your now famous nylon net.

They are in much better condition, as the net seems to remove the film that collects.

BUMGARNER.

Dear Heloise: When I make button holes I mark the length with pencil, then put a piece of cellophane tape at each end so that I "hear" the machine needle when it hits the tape and know that I have reached the end of the button hole.

S. MORNINGSTAR.

Dear Heloise: Yesterday I bought shoestrings for my little boys but I couldn't remember the right length.

Sure enough they are too long. Instead of cutting them off to fit, I just relaced them through the two bottom holes in the shoes. They fit perfectly!

Also, if they should break there's still enough left to tie them again.

MARY WOSZZYNSKI.

Dear Heloise: For those who have difficulty with stubborn metal zippers, don't forget the old standby — an ordinary lead pencil.

Just rub it up and down the zipper. Then dust off the excess lead dust, and sure enough an old zipper lorks like new.

MRS. T. C. WHITE.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Dieters Pass Along Novel Ideas

Surprisingly enough, in reducing it is more often than not some little ruse that adds a fillip to slimming. Who says so? The winners.

Ida Jean Kain

The first report is from a dieter who has a sizable number of pounds to lose.

"To make it interesting to stay on a slimming course, allow yourself something new in wearing apparel after losing each 10 pounds. Also, have a special treat after each 10 pounds are gone for good. Tell your readers it is the new food habits that makes dieting easy. I find the treat I look forward to is more likely to be delicious melon or sherbet, rather than something fattening. Food habits do change," she promises.

SHE HAS reduced from 240 pounds to 165 pounds, and is continuing toward the 130-pound mark that her doctor has set for her. She follows a well-balanced, high-protein diet. At the start she had 1,200 calories a day, but, later, after part of the fat was lost, she dropped down to 1,000 calories a day.

One overweight who could not tolerate appetite depressants, asked her doctor for a substitute. He suggested a glass of buttermilk 30 minutes before lunch and again before dinner. This protective curber works like a charm for her.

A homemaker who thought it impossible to lose, found the secret of success for her is to start the day with a sustaining breakfast. She was not able to do this until she devised the plan of waiting until after the morning "rush hour" was over. She has juice and coffee with the family, then later has an egg, a slice of toast and a second cup of coffee, while she reads the newspaper.

A CAREER woman wrote: "One night I was about to fork into the dessert I had fixed for the family, although I was no longer hungry. On impulse I got up from the table and went to my clothes closet. I pulled out a favorite dress in a size 16 that I couldn't wear. I fixed my mind on wearing that dress, and pictured myself in it. That trick did it for me. The amazing part of this plan is that after I'm away from the table. I don't miss the extra food I've passed up. . .and I feel so proud of myself."

Another reducer offers a practical plan to follow after you have reached your desirable weight.

"Buy only one new thing for your wardrobe at a time, rather than splurging on a whole new outfit. This sustains your enthusiasm for keeping slim," she affirms.

Thank you one and all for your suggestions.

NFO Pickets Cincinnati's Area Dairies

Members of the National Farmers Organization picketed dairies in the Cincinnati area Sunday as part of the NFO's drive to get more money for milk.

Elsewhere in Ohio, the Easter holiday apparently brought a lull in the organization's activity, which has centered on the withholding of milk from the market. The farmers are seeking an additional two cents a quart.

There were scattered reports, however, of continued milk dumping.

The demonstrations were the first in Cincinnati since the NFO began its drive several days ago. No trouble was reported, and authorities said no efforts were made to stop milk trucks from entering or leaving the plants.

The pickets were from southwestern Ohio and northern Kentucky. They included Le Roy Jacquemin, NFO president in Butler County, Ohio.

At Sardinia in Brown County, about 30 miles east of Cincinnati, pickets also paraded at one dairy operation. About 15 showed up there and took turns picketing.

No more than two pickets were reported at a time at the Cincinnati dairies.

Broadway Rolls Out Red Carpet

'Tony' Awards Presented For Theater Excellence

NEW YORK (AP) — Broadway rolled out its best red carpet Sunday night to present the Tony awards for theater excellence and take its place among the national spectacles of the motion picture Academy Awards and television's Emmys.

"It's damn well about time."

The hour-long 21st annual Tony award presentation, televised nationally from the Schubert Theater by the American Broadcasting Co., was the best show on Broadway Sunday night — all other Broadway theaters were dark for the holiday.

Barbara Harris of "The Apple Tree" and Robert Preston of "I Do! I Do!" took the top awards for musical performances and Beryl Reid of "The Killing of Sister George" and Paul Rodgers of "The Homecoming" took medallions as top stars in straight drama.

Tonys for supporting roles went to Joel Grey and Peg Murray, both of "Cabaret"; and to Marian Seldes of "A Delicate Balance" and Ian Holm of "The Homecoming" for supporting dramatic roles.

Other awards to "Cabaret" went to producer Harold Prince, librettist Jose Masteroff, composer John Kander and lyricist Fred Ebb, sharing the medallion for the best musical; to Prince for his direction; to Kander and Ebb for the best score; to Patricia Zipprodt for costuming; Boris Aronson for scenic design, and Ronald Field, choreography.

"The Homecoming" took the Tony for the year's outstanding drama, shared by author Harold Pinter and producer Alexander H. Cohen, and for direction by Peter Hall.

Red carpeting was rolled out along midtown Manhattan's 44th Street between the Shubert Theater and Sardi's East, across the street, for each Tony recipient to use in crossing from the theater to the restaurant to meet the press.

Each dutifully recited the watchword of show business award winners:

"I am just so happy and I would like to thank all the people who made this possible. . ."

But each seemed happy that the Tonys had become a national affair rather than the intimate little gathering that had characterized the presentations for the past 20 years.

"It's a lot better than the Oscar (Academy Award) show ," said producer David Merrick, "and we didn't even have Jerry Lewis. We live on publicity. This is the greatest we can get."

Increased Sales Are Reported By American Motors

PITTSBURGH — Retail sales of American Motors cars in the Pittsburgh zone for the March 1-20 period were up 50 per cent over the corresponding February period, F. S. Johnsen, zone manager, has announced.

Paced by increased sales in the Rambler American line, deliveries in the second 10 days of March topped the preceding 10 days by 73 per cent, Johnsen said.

"Since Feb. 21 when the company announced its repositioning of the Rambler American in the 'impact' gap between the small import cars and other low-priced U.S. compacts, buyer interest has continued to rise," he said.

"The price reductions of $154 to $234 on American models have stimulated interest among import owners and our dealers are reporting an increased number of trade-ins of small foreign makes."

The rise in sales has resulted in some model shortages, but this will be corrected by an increase in factory schedules in early April, he added.

The Pittsburgh zone covers American Motors dealers in Western Pennsylvania and parts of West Virginia and Ohio.

Pickands, Cerro Firms Disclose Plans To Merge

CLEVELAND (AP)—Pickands Mather & Co. of Cleveland, and the Cerro Corp., headquartered in New York, have a preliminary agreement to merge operations, it was announced late Sunday.

Approval of the proposal by directors and stockholders of both companies would give Cleveland a major role in one of the world's largest minerals development, mining and processing companies.

The consolidation transactions would be valued by the market at nearly $75 million.

This is on the basis of the current quotation of about $38 per share for Cerro common stock on the New York Stock Exchange and a bid price of approximately $28 per share for Pickands Mather in the over-the-counter market.

It is estimated in financial circles that stockholders of the Cleveland firm would have a 22 per cent interest in the combined company.

The proposal, if consumated, would produce a company with combined sales of one-half billion dollars and annual net earnings of more than $50 million, based on 1966 results.

Pickands Mather has been engaged since 1883 principally in the development and operation of properties for the production of iron ore and coal, primarily for major steel companies in the United States, Canada and Japan.

The company employes 6,000.

Cerro Corp., with about 19,000 employes, is a major producer of primary copper, zinc, lead and silver in Latin America. The international company operates eight plants in the United States for the manufacture of brass mill products and electrical wire and cable.

Two Are Killed In Plane Crash

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Isabell Whitt had promised Saturday to watch her son, James M. Duff, 26, fly his recently purchased airplane.

Mrs. Whitt was outside that evening as the plane circled her house for the third time, when it suddenly overturned and fell 150 feet to the ground, killing Duff and his passenger, Alva L. Baker, 51, both of Middletown.

The crash left six children fatherless. Each man is survived by three children and a widow.

Two men were required to keep Mrs. Whitt from trying to enter the flaming plane, according to Paul Fox. He said the small plane was virtually consumed by fire in about 90 seconds.

Cause of the crash was not known. Duff had soloed in the 1946 two-seater Aeronca Champion just a few days ago.

The Hittites of Asia Minor used iron, and probably steel, for weapons as early as 1600 B.C.

Japanese Group Plans Ohio Visit

COLUMBUS — Nineteen Japanese businessmen will be in Ohio April 4-8 to return visits paid by Ohio's recent Far East Trade Mission.

They will stay in Columbus to tour industrial plants and study businesses in the economy. Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: How in the world do you get thick tomato paste out of those little cans without leaving most of it at the bottom and on the scraping, dipping, spooning, etc., and always end up with a mess. — FRUSTRATED SAL.

Dear Sal: Why not try my way and save wear and tear on both our nerves?

Simply open BOTH ends of the can, scraping one end on the edge of the can as you remove it. With the other end STILL IN PLACE, just push it right through the can with two fingers, letting it fall in the pot.

Swish, clean as a whistle!

Then pick the other end off the top of the paste, scrape it against the edge of the pan, and you've not wasted a tasty bit!

Now look and see how clean your can is. Nary a bit left. Too bad we can't clean our closets that quickly!

HELOISE.

Dear Heloise: Here is a hint my eleven-year-old granddaughter thought of.

When you are going away and want to leave a note for someone, write it on an envelope. Turn the top open, wet it and stick it on your door inside your screen door.

FLORENCE CORDELL.

Dear Heloise: We do quite a lot of entertaining and I always have to buy new candles for the table each time. I've collected a box full of half used candles.

Yesterday, I discovered I could reuse these candles by taking a knife and removing the wax around the wick about one half inch, and cutting off the burnt part of the wick.

They are shorter, but look nice and new again.

TANYA INGMIRE.

Dear Heloise: It is annoying and wasteful to start to use a steel soap-filled pad the second time and find it unusable because of rust.

Next time you use a new one try wapping it in foil and sealing it. All my troubles ended this way—

MRS. GENE ADAMS.

Dear Heloise: When one of our children are sick with a fever, I always freeze popsicles for them out of fruit juice.

When no other liquids will be taken, they will always eat the nice cold popsicles.

Make different flavors so they can have a choice.

FAITHFUL FRIEND.

Dear Heloise: Since we live in a hard water area, I have learned to wash all my glassware and stainless steel pans with your now famous nylon net.

They are in much better condition, as the net seems to remove the film that collects.

BUMGARNER.

Dear Heloise: When I make button holes I mark the length with pencil, then put a piece of cellophane tape at each end so that I "hear" the machine needle when it hits the tape and know that I have reached the end of the button hole.

S. MORNINGSTAR.

Dear Heloise: Yesterday I bought shoestrings for my little boys but I couldn't remember the right length.

Sure enough they are too long. Instead of cutting them off to fit, I just relaced them through the two bottom holes in the shoes. They fit perfectly!

Also, if they should break there's still enough left to tie them again.

MARY WOSZZYNSKI.

Dear Heloise: For those who have difficulty with stubborn metal zippers, don't forget the old standby — an ordinary lead pencil.

Just rub it up and down the zipper. Then dust off the excess lead dust, and sure enough an old zipper lorks like new.

MRS. T. C. WHITE.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Dieters Pass Along Novel Ideas

Ida Jean Kain

The first report is from a dieter who has a sizable number of pounds to lose.

"To make it interesting to stay on a slimming course, allow yourself something new in wearing apparel after losing each 10 pounds. Also, have a special treat after each 10 pounds are gone for good. Tell your readers it is the new food habits that makes dieting easy. I find the treat I look forward to is more likely to be delicious melon or sherbet, rather than something fattening. Food habits do change," she promises.

SHE HAS reduced from 240 pounds to 165 pounds, and is continuing toward the 130-pound mark that her doctor has set for her. She follows a well-balanced, high-protein diet. At the start she had 1,200 calories a day, but, later, after part of the fat was lost, she dropped down to 1,000 calories a day.

One overweight who could not tolerate appetite depressants, asked her doctor for a substitute. He suggested a glass of buttermilk 30 minutes before lunch and again before dinner. This protective curber works like a charm for her.

A homemaker who thought it impossible to lose, found the secret of success for her is to start the day with a sustaining breakfast. She was not able to do this until she devised the plan of waiting until after the morning "rush hour" was over. She has juice and coffee with the family, then later has an egg, a slice of toast and a second cup of coffee, while she reads the newspaper.

A CAREER woman wrote: "One night I was about to fork into the dessert I had fixed for the family, although I was no longer hungry. On impulse I got up from the table and went to my clothes closet. I pulled out a favorite dress in a size 16 that I couldn't wear. I fixed my mind on wearing that dress, and pictured myself in it. That trick did it for me. The amazing part of this plan is that after I'm away from the table. I don't miss the extra food I've passed up. . .and I feel so proud of myself."

Another reducer offers a practical plan to follow after you have reached your desirable weight.

"Buy only one new thing for your wardrobe at a time, rather than splurging on a whole new outfit. This sustains your enthusiasm for keeping slim," she affirms.

Thank you one and all for your suggestions.

NFO Pickets Cincinnati's Area Dairies

Elsewhere in Ohio, the Easter holiday apparently brought a lull in the organization's activity, which has centered on the withholding of milk from the market. The farmers are seeking an additional two cents a quart.

There were scattered reports, however, of continued milk dumping.

The demonstrations were the first in Cincinnati since the NFO began its drive several days ago. No trouble was reported, and authorities said no efforts were made to stop milk trucks from entering or leaving the plants.

The pickets were from southwestern Ohio and northern Kentucky. They included Le Roy Jacquemin, NFO president in Butler County, Ohio.

At Sardinia in Brown County, about 30 miles east of Cincinnati, pickets also paraded at one dairy operation. About 15 showed up there and took turns picketing.

No more than two pickets were reported at a time at the Cincinnati dairies.

Broadway Rolls Out Red Carpet

'Tony' Awards Presented For Theater Excellence

NEW YORK (AP) — Broadway rolled out its best red carpet Sunday night to present the Tony awards for theater excellence and take its place among the national spectacles of the motion picture Academy Awards and television's Emmys.

"It's damn well about time."

The hour-long 21st annual Tony award presentation, televised nationally from the Schubert Theater by the American Broadcasting Co., was the best show on Broadway Sunday night — all other Broadway theaters were dark for the holiday.

Barbara Harris of "The Apple Tree" and Robert Preston of "I Do! I Do!" took the top awards for musical performances and Beryl Reid of "The Killing of Sister George" and Paul Rodgers of "The Homecoming" took medallions as top stars in straight drama.

Tonys for supporting roles went to Joel Grey and Peg Murray, both of "Cabaret"; and to Marian Seldes of "A Delicate Balance" and Ian Holm of "The Homecoming" for supporting dramatic roles.

Other awards to "Cabaret" went to producer Harold Prince, librettist Jose Masteroff, composer John Kander and lyricist Fred Ebb, sharing the medallion for the best musical; to Prince for his direction; to Kander and Ebb for the best score; to Patricia Zipprodt for costuming; Boris Aronson for scenic design, and Ronald Field, choreography.

"The Homecoming" took the Tony for the year's outstanding drama, shared by author Harold Pinter and producer Alexander H. Cohen, and for direction by Peter Hall.

Red carpeting was rolled out along midtown Manhattan's 44th Street between the Shubert Theater and Sardi's East, across the street, for each Tony recipient to use in crossing from the theater to the restaurant to meet the press.

Each dutifully recited the watchword of show business award winners:

"I am just so happy and I would like to thank all the people who made this possible. . ."

But each seemed happy that the Tonys had become a national affair rather than the intimate little gathering that had characterized the presentations for the past 20 years.

"It's a lot better than the Oscar (Academy Award) show," said producer David Merrick, "and we didn't even have Jerry Lewis. We live on publicity. This is the greatest we can get."

Increased Sales Are Reported By American Motors

PITTSBURGH — Retail sales of American Motors cars in the Pittsburgh zone for the March 1-20 period were up 50 per cent over the corresponding February period, F. S. Johnsen, zone manager, has announced.

Paced by increased sales in the Rambler American line, deliveries in the second 10 days of March topped the preceding 10 days by 73 per cent, Johnsen said.

"Since Feb. 21 when the company announced its repositioning of the Rambler American in the 'impact' gap between the small import cars and other low-priced U.S. compacts, buyer interest has continued to rise," he said.

"The price reductions of $154 to $234 on American models have stimulated interest among import owners and our dealers are reporting an increased number of trade-ins of small foreign makes."

The rise in sales has resulted in some model shortages, but this will be corrected by an increase in factory schedules in early April, he added.

Pickands, Cerro Firms Disclose Plans To Merge

CLEVELAND (AP)—Pickands Mather & Co. of Cleveland, and the Cerro Corp., headquartered in New York, have a preliminary agreement to merge operations, it was announced late Sunday.

Approval of the proposal by directors and stockholders of both companies would give Cleveland a major role in one of the world's largest minerals development, mining and processing companies.

This is on the basis of the current quotation of about $38 per share for Cerro common stock on the New York Stock Exchange and a bid price of approximately $28 per share for Pickands Mather in the over-the-counter market.

It is estimated in financial circles that stockholders of the Cleveland firm would have a 22 per cent interest in the combined company.

The proposal, if consumated, would produce a company with combined sales of one-half billion dollars and annual net earnings of more than $50 million, based on 1966 results.

Pickands Mather has been engaged since 1883 principally in the development and operation of properties for the production of iron ore and coal, primarily for major steel companies in the United States, Canada and Japan.

The company employes 6,000.

Cerro Corp., with about 19,000 employes, is a major producer of primary copper, zinc, lead and silver in Latin America. The international company operates eight plants in the United States for the manufacture of brass mill products and electrical wire and cable.

Two Are Killed In Plane Crash

Mrs. Whitt was outside that evening as the plane circled her house for the third time, when it suddenly overturned and fell 150 feet to the ground, killing Duff and his passenger, Alva L. Baker, 51, both of Middletown.

The crash left six children fatherless. Each man is survived by three children and a widow.

Two men were required to keep Mrs. Whitt from trying to enter the flaming plane, according to Paul Fox. He said the small plane was virtually consumed by fire in about 90 seconds.

Cause of the crash was not known. Duff had soloed in the 1946 two-seater Aeronca Champion just a few days ago.

Unbeaten UCLA Rolls To Third NCAA Title In 4 Years

Uclans Will Have All Starters Back

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — John Wooden, coach of UCLA's NCAA national basketball champions, isn't sure what the word dynasty means but he may have one on his hands.

Led by giant Lew Alcindor and tiny Mike Warren, the Bruins wrapped up their third national title in four years Saturday night to cap a perfect 30-0 season.

And with all five starters returning, Wooden won't deny that UCLA may be back to claim the title next year.

"I've never been quite sure what the word dynasty means. I've never looked it up," Wooden said after the Uclans had squashed Dayton's game Flyers 79-64 in the championship game.

"But I do hope we can stay up there and be a power," he said. "We're certainly going to continue trying and I hope we'll be back next year, and the year following, and the year following and the year following.

"I never want us to do less than we did this year in order to get here," Wooden said.

Wooden denied that a basketball dynasty, at UCLA, if there is to be one, would be harmful to college basketball.

"I'd say the New York Yankee regime wasn't bad for baseball," Wooden said. "I think a winning team should give others incentive to build to the level of the best."

Don Donoher, the Dayton coach, agrees.

"When you see a team like this it makes you want to build toward it," he said.

The Flyers fell behind 20-4 as the game started and never really knew what hit them.

Dayton's biggest scoring threat, Don May hit only three of 12 baskets in the first half and the team hit only 23.8 per cent from the field. May wound up with 21 points but the Flyers team shooting only warmed up to 34 per cent.

Alcindor's mere presence was enough to intimidate Dayton, but he scored 20 points and nabbed 18 rebounds for good measure. Lucius Allen had 19 points and Warren 17.

It was the third straight year in the playoffs for Dayton and the third time it had been eliminated by the No. 1 ranked team. The Flyers finished 25-6 this season.

Guy Lewis, whose Houston Cougars did only what was necessary to defeat North Carolina, 84-62 in the consolation game, also is optimistic about next season.

"We lose two starters, but I think that we can have a team just as good or better next season," Lewis said. "When you wind up you season with a win over the number three ranked team in the country, it's a pretty good indication."

Warriors, Hawks Gain NBA's Western Finals

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Warriors and the St. Louis Hawks now are getting ready for the battle for supremacy in the National Basketball Association's Western Division, but the Boston Celtics surprisingly have a little unfinished business in the East.

The Warriors, who won their third straight playoff victory from Los Angeles Sunday, 122-115, play the Hawks in the Cow Palace Thursday night in the opener of their series.

But the Celts, who had beaten New York 21 times including two recent playoff triumphs, were upended by the Knicks 123-112 in Boston and the series moves back to New York Tuesday.

Philadelphia won its playoff series from Cincinnati with a 112-94 third-game victory Saturday while St. Louis disposed of Chicago with a 119-106 triumph in its final game in the preliminary Western Division series.

The rest of the schedule between St. Louis and San Francisco has the second game on the Coast Saturday and then it's back to St. Louis for the third game on April 5 and the fourth game on April 8.

If additional games are needed, the fifth will be at San Francisco on April 10, the sixth at St. Louis on April 12 and the seventh in San Francisco on April 14.

Rick Barry led the Warriors Sunday with 37 points, and the Lakers sorely missed Jerry West, out of the game with a broken finger. Elgin Baylor had 37 points for Los Angeles.

Willis Reed had 38 points for the Knicks and dominated the boards in the upset. Cazzie Russell had 24 points and Walt Bellamy added 23. John Havlicek had 29 for Boston.

Bobby Hull Declares War On His Shadow

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Hull, a non-combatant in the National Hockey League's runner-up brawl, has opened a second front — by declaring war on his shadow.

While Montreal and New York closed ground on Toronto Sunday in the three-cornered battle for second place, Chicago's regular-season champions bowed to Detroit 4-2 in a game marred by the resumption of hostilities between superstar Hull and superpest Bryan Watson.

Hull and Watson, who tangled several times last season when Watson was assigned to hound the Black Hawks' ace, traded punches in the second period and spent the rest of the night shoving and elbowing each other.

Montreal, meanwhile, struck for six goals in the third period and whipped the Boston Bruins 6-3 for a share of second place with Toronto, which fell to New York 4-0 as Ranger goalie Ed Giacomin registered his ninth shutout — tops in the league.

The Rangers' victory lifted them within one point of the Leafs and Canadiens going into the final week of the campaign.

Hull, sidetracked from his assault on the goal-scoring record he set last season, failed to get a shot off against the Red Wings and drew 14 minutes in penalties — including a pair of five-minute majors after the second-period melee.

Watson, a brash, 24-year-old checking specialist, gained prominence by stymying Hull as the Red Wings ousted Chicago in a semifinal playoff series last April. He'll probably be shadowing Hull, who needs three more goals to break his 1965-66 record of 54, when the teams meet for the last time Tuesday night.

Dean Prentice scored twice for the Red Wings, who pulled away on goals by Floyd Smith and Bruce MacGregor in the last two minutes of the second period.

The Canadiens, unbeaten in their last eight games, wiped out a 2-0 Boston lead with their third-period scoring spree. Gilles Tremblay triggered the rally and John Ferguson, Leon Rochefort, Bobby Rousseau, Ralph Backstrom and Jean Beliveau kept it rolling. The first five Montreal goals were scored in less than six minutes.

Giacomin stopped 31 Toronto shots in becoming the first New York goaltender since 1932 to record nine shutouts in a season. The second-year netminder has blanked the Leafs three times.

Orland Kurtenbach and Vic Hadfield scored first-period power-play goals. Earl Ingarfield connected with the Rangers short-handed in the middle session and Ken Schinkel's unassisted third-period tally completed the rout.

McDowell Baffles Cubs In Tribe's 4-3 Victory

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The verdict on Sam McDowell may not be final for a couple of months yet, but the Chicago Cubs think they see the jury coming in.

McDowell, of course, is the fireballing Cleveland left-hander who was supposed to make everybody forget about Sandy Koufax. He ran into arm trouble last year and had a mediocre season.

But Sunday, with the opening of the major-league baseball season just a little more than two weeks away, McDowell went six innings against the Cubs at Scottsdale, Ariz., and gave up not so much as a single hit.

The Indians had a little trouble scoring themselves, but finally pushed across three unearned runs in the eighth inning and added another in the ninth, then withstood a Chicago challenge and won 4-3.

In all, Sudden Sam struck out six and walked one in the Cleveland triumph. The Cubs' runs all came in the ninth, two of them on Ron Santo's two run homer in his first appearance since being spiked on March 17.

In other exhibition games Sunday, Baltimore beat Los Angeles 3-1, Kansas City edged Houston 5-4, California blanked San Francisco 5-0, Philadelphia outslugged Atlanta 10-9, the New York Yankees bounced Cincinnati 9-3, Pittsburgh and Washington tied 5-5 in 15 innings, the Chicago White Sox beat the New York Mets 4-3 in 10 innings, Minnesota blasted Boston 7-1 and St. Louis beat Detroit 6-2.

Cleveland's Dick Radatz set the Cubs down without a hit in the seventh, but Jim Stewart broke the spell in the eighth with a two-out pinch single off Vince Romo.

Dave Johnson knocked in two runs for the Orioles with a double and two singles in the victory over the Dodgers at Vero Beach, Fla. Dave Duncan drove in two runs, one on a homer, for Kansas City as the Astros fell at Cocoa, Fla.

George Brunet set San Francisco down on two hits in six innings in the Angels' triumph at Palm Springs, Calif. Tom Satriano had three hits and two runs batted in for California.

Pinch-Hitting Role Slated For Bill White

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Bill White, the Philadelphia Phillies' injured first baseman, may be used as a pinch hitter before long, even though doctors say he will not be able to play regularly before June.

"He could pinch hit on opening day (April 11)," Manager Gene Mauch said Sunday.

Unbeaten UCLA Rolls To Third NCAA Title In 4 Years

Uclans Will Have All Starters Back

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — John Wooden, coach of UCLA's NCAA national basketball champions, isn't sure what the word dynasty means but he may have one on his hands.

Led by giant Lew Alcindor and tiny Mike Warren, the Bruins wrapped up their third national title in four years Saturday night to cap a perfect 30-0 season.

And with all five starters returning, Wooden won't deny that UCLA may be back to claim the title next year.

"I've never been quite sure what the word dynasty means. I've never looked it up," Wooden said after the Uclans had squashed Dayton's game Flyers 79-64 in the championship game.

"But I do hope we can stay up there and be a power," he said. "We're certainly going to continue trying and I hope we'll be back next year, and the year following, and the year following and the year following.

"I never want us to do less than we did this year in order to get here," Wooden said.

Wooden denied that a basketball dynasty, at UCLA, if there is to be one, would be harmful to college basketball.

"I'd say the New York Yankee regime wasn't bad for baseball," Wooden said. "I think a winning team should give others incentive to build to the level of the best."

Don Donoher, the Dayton coach, agrees.

"When you see a team like this it makes you want to build toward it," he said.

The Flyers fell behind 20-4 as the game started and never really knew what hit them.

Dayton's biggest scoring threat, Don May hit only three of 12 baskets in the first half and the team hit only 23.8 per cent from the field. May wound up with 21 points but the Flyers team shooting only warmed up to 34 per cent.

Alcindor's mere presence was enough to intimidate Dayton, but he scored 20 points and nabbed 18 rebounds for good measure. Lucius Allen had 19 points and Warren 17.

It was the third straight year in the playoffs for Dayton and the third time it had been eliminated by the No. 1 ranked team. The Flyers finished 25-6 this season.

Guy Lewis, whose Houston Cougars did only what was necessary to defeat North Carolina, 84-62 in the consolation game, also is optimistic about next season.

"We lose two starters, but I think that we can have a team just as good or better next season," Lewis said. "When you wind up you season with a win over the number three ranked team in the country, it's a pretty good indication."

Knicks Slow Celtics' Express

Warriors, Hawks Gain NBA's Western Finals

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Warriors and the St. Louis Hawks now are getting ready for the battle for supremacy in the National Basketball Association's Western Division, but the Boston Celtics surprisingly have a little unfinished business in the East.

The Warriors, who won their third straight playoff victory from Los Angeles Sunday, 122-115, play the Hawks in the Cow Palace Thursday night in the opener of their series.

But the Celts, who had beaten New York 21 times including two recent playoff triumphs, were upended by the Knicks 123-112 in Boston and the series moves back to New York Tuesday.

Philadelphia won its playoff series from Cincinnati with a 112-94 third-game victory Saturday while St. Louis disposed of Chicago with a 119-106 triumph in its final game in the preliminary Western Division series.

The rest of the schedule between St. Louis and San Francisco has the second game on the Coast Saturday and then it's back to St. Louis for the third game on April 5 and the fourth game on April 8.

If additional games are needed, the fifth will be at San Francisco on April 10, the sixth at St. Louis on April 12 and the seventh in San Francisco on April 14.

Rick Barry led the Warriors Sunday with 37 points, and the Lakers sorely missed Jerry West, out of the game with a broken finger. Elgin Baylor had 37 points for Los Angeles.

Willis Reed had 38 points for the Knicks and dominated the boards in the upset. Cazzie Russell had 24 points and Walt Bellamy added 23. John Havlicek had 29 for Boston.

Bobby Hull Declares War On His Shadow

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Hull, a non-combatant in the National Hockey League's runner-up brawl, has opened a second front — by declaring war on his shadow.

While Montreal and New York closed ground on Toronto Sunday in the three-cornered battle for second place, Chicago's regular-season champions bowed to Detroit 4-2 in a game marred by the resumption of hostilities between superstar Hull and superpest Bryan Watson.

Hull and Watson, who tangled several times last season when Watson was assigned to hound the Black Hawks' ace, traded punches in the second period and spent the rest of the night shoving and elbowing each other.

Montreal, meanwhile, struck for six goals in the third period and whipped the Boston Bruins 6-3 for a share of second place with Toronto, which fell to New York 4-0 as Ranger goalie Ed Giacomin registered his ninth shutout — tops in the league.

The Rangers' victory lifted them within one point of the Leafs and Canadiens going into the final week of the campaign.

Hull, sidetracked from his assault on the goal-scoring record he set last season, failed to get a shot off against the Red Wings and drew 14 minutes in penalties — including a pair of five-minute majors after the second-period melee.

Watson, a brash, 24-year-old checking specialist, gained prominence by stymying Hull as the Red Wings ousted Chicago in a semifinal playoff series last April. He'll probably be shadowing Hull, who needs three more goals to break his 1965-66 record of 54, when the teams meet for the last time Tuesday night.

Dean Prentice scored twice for the Red Wings, who pulled away on goals by Floyd Smith and Bruce MacGregor in the last two minutes of the second period.

The Canadiens, unbeaten in their last eight games, wiped out a 2-0 Boston lead with their third-period scoring spree. Gilles Tremblay triggered the rally and John Ferguson, Leon Rochefort, Bobby Rousseau, Ralph Backstrom and Jean Beliveau kept it rolling. The first five Montreal goals were scored in less than six minutes.

Giacomin stopped 31 Toronto shots in becoming the first New York goaltender since 1932 to record nine shutouts in a season. The second-year netminder has blanked the Leafs three times.

Orland Kurtenbach and Vic Hadfield scored first-period power-play goals. Earl Ingarfield connected with the Rangers short-handed in the middle session and Ken Schinkel's unassisted third-period tally completed the rout.

Ambridge's DeVenzio Named All-American

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick DeVenzio of Ambridge, Pa., High School has been named to Parade Magazine's All—America high school basketball team.

DeVenzio, a 5-foot-9 playmaker who led Ambridge to its first Pennsylvania high school Class A basketball championship earlier this month, was selected Saturday following a vote of more than 200 sports writers and coaches.

Another Pennsylvanian, Ken Durrett of Pittsburgh's Schenley High School, was placed on the second team.

Hurls 6 Hitless Innings

McDowell Baffles Cubs In Tribe's 4-3 Victory

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The verdict on Sam McDowell may not be final for a couple of months yet, but the Chicago Cubs think they see the jury coming in.

McDowell, of course, is the fireballing Cleveland left-hander who was supposed to make everybody forget about Sandy Koufax. He ran into arm trouble last year and had a mediocre season.

But Sunday, with the opening of the major-league baseball season just a little more than two weeks away, McDowell went six innings against the Cubs at Scottsdale, Ariz., and gave up not so much as a single hit.

The Indians had a little trouble scoring themselves, but finally pushed across three unearned runs in the eighth inning and added another in the ninth, then withstood a Chicago challenge and won 4-3.

In all, Sudden Sam struck out six and walked one in the Cleveland triumph. The Cubs' runs all came in the ninth, two of them on Ron Santo's two run homer in his first appearance since being spiked on March 17.

In other exhibition games Sunday, Baltimore beat Los Angeles 3-1, Kansas City edged Houston 5-4, California blanked San Francisco 5-0, Philadelphia outslugged Atlanta 10-9, the New York Yankees bounced Cincinnati 9-3, Pittsburgh and Washington tied 5-5 in 15 innings, the Chicago White Sox beat the New York Mets 4-3 in 10 innings, Minnesota blasted Boston 7-1 and St. Louis beat Detroit 6-2.

Cleveland's Dick Radatz set the Cubs down without a hit in the seventh, but Jim Stewart broke the spell in the eighth with a two-out pinch single off Vince Romo.

Dave Johnson knocked in two runs for the Orioles with a double and two singles in the victory over the Dodgers at Vero Beach, Fla. Dave Duncan drove in two runs, one on a homer, for Kansas City as the Astros fell at Cocoa, Fla.

George Brunet set San Francisco down on two hits in six innings in the Angels' triumph at Palm Springs, Calif. Tom Satriano had three hits and two runs batted in for California.

Pinch-Hitting Role Slated For Bill White

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Bill White, the Philadelphia Phillies' injured first baseman, may be used as a pinch hitter before long, even though doctors say he will not be able to play regularly before June.

"He could pinch hit on opening day (April 11)," Manager Gene Mauch said Sunday.

Brewer Eyes Masters After Pensacola Open Victory

'Going All Out,' Ohio Golfer Says

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — "I think I can win the Masters — that's the one I really want," Gay Brewer said today after making a travesty of par in winning his second straight Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

"I'm playing well. I feel I have a good chance at Augusta. I'm going all out for it."

Wining the Masters holds a special allure for the 35-year-old veteran from Middletown, Ohio, just as repeating in Pensacola enabled him to prove something to himself and others.

Last year Brewer backed into the Pensacola crown when the popular Doug Sanders, leading by four strokes, was disqualified after the third round for failing to sign his score card.

"Nobody spots me four strokes and beats me," a disgruntled Sanders remarked bitterly afterward — a comment said in haste for which he later was sorry.

Brewer took it to heart. "I'd have liked the chance to see whether I could have caught him or not — it's been done," Brewer said. "So I was really anxious to win this tournament this year." He won spectacularly.

Spewing birdies and eagles over the 6,380-yard par 72 Pensacola Country Club course, he scored a near-record 66-64-61-71 —262 for a six-stroke victory over 36-year-old home pro Bob Keller of the nearby Eglin Air Force Base.

After firing 26 birdies and an eagle in the first three rounds to go 25 under par and increasing that to 29 under par through 66 holes, Brewer looked ready to catch Mike Souchak's all-time record of 257 for 72 holes, set on the Brackenridge course at San Antonio, Tex., in 1955.

But the rains came, Brewer bogeyed three of the finishing holes and he had to settle for a score of 26 under.

At the Masters last year, the pug-nosed midwesterner had the traditional green coat virtually in his closet when he came to the final hole needing only a par to win. He three-putted from 40 feet, missing a crucial seven-footer, and tied Jack Nicklaus and Tommy Jacobs at 288.

In the playoff, Nicklaus won with a 70. Tommy shot a 72 and Brewer skied to a 78.

Brewer, in scoring his first tournament victory since the same tournament a year ago, won $15,000. Keller grabbed $9,000, thanks to a fine trap recovery on the final hole, beating out Sanders, who won third money of $5,625. Keller shot 65 for 268, Sanders 64 for 269.

Then came Ken Still, 71 for 271, followed by a quintet at 272 — young Jim Colbert, George Archer, Bobby Nichols, Dan Sikes and Tommy Jacobs.

Bill Fitch Named As BG Cage Coach

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—William C. (Bill) Fitch, who has coached at the University of North Dakota the last five years, today was named head basketball coach at Bowling Green State University.

The 34-year-old Fitch, a graduate of Coe College in Iowa in 1954, succeeds Warren (Porky) Scholler who resigned recently after four seasons with the Falcons.

Fitch's appointment, effective immediately, was announced by BG Athletic Director Doyt L. Perry.

His record at North Dakota in five years has been an impressive 92 - 44 with three straight championships in the North Central Conference.

Fitch came to North Dakota in the 1962-63 season and led the Sioux to their first winning season in 10 years.

Before that, he was head basketball and baseball coach at Coe College. Prior to that position, Fitch was head baseball and freshman basketball coach at Creighton University for two years.

Fitch lettered both in basketball and baseball at Coe and received a masters at Creighton in 1959. He is married and has three children.

The university reportedly screened 100 candidates before selecting Fitch to replace Scholler who quit after Bowling Green, picked to win the Mid-American Conference, finished with an 11-13 record and low in the standings.

Scholler's four-year log at BG was 43-52.

Canada, Russia Clash For World Title In Hockey

The Americans, laboring under a lengthy toll of injuries, clinched a berth in the 1968 Olympic Games with a 2-0 victory over Finland Sunday.

It was the second straight shutout for goalie Carl Wetzel of Detroit and assured the Americans of no worse that a tie for fifth place in this tourney. The top five teams here qualify for the Olympics.

Wetzel, who played a 0-0 tie against East Germany Saturday, kicked out 27 shots, despite a second period tumble that aggravated an old back injury.

Russia, with five straight victories, held a one-point edge over Canada, which had four victories and a tie before today's game.

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Reflected Glory, pride of the Hirsch Jacobs Stable, and Damascus, beaten only one in six career starts, today rate as co-favorites for the May 6 running of the Kentucky Derby.

But Reflected Glory, quoted at 5-1 in the future books' opening line after a convincing triumph in the Flamingo at Hialeah Park, could change all of that Saturday in the 1⅛ miles of the Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

Damascus, rated no better than 12-1 in the opening line, moved in on the Jacobs-trained 3-year-old last Saturday by posting a convincing victory in the $28,600 Bay Shore at Aqueduct for his second success of the year and his fifth after losing his first race as a 2-year-old.

Reflected Glory, a come-from-behind type, didn't even figure in the 2-year-old ratings of 1966. Damascus picked up many backers after beating the Jacobs colt in the one-mile of the Remsen in his final start of a light-campaign.

Jockey Bill Shoemaker lost no time last Saturday telling all who would listen that Damascus was his Derby mount. That was when the Frank Whitely-trained horse whipped Aqueduct's mud, the fleet Disciplinarian and Solo Landing, the odds-on-favorite who was working on a string of five straight victories.

The paths of Reflected Glory, a son of Jester, and Damascus, an offspring of Sword Dancer, who ran second in the 1959 Kentucky Derby, are not likely to cross until the 1¼-mile run for the roses. After the Florida Derby, Reflected Glory is expected to head for Kentucky with his final prep in the Blue Grass at Keeneland April 27.

Damascus was back at his Laurel, Md., barn today with the one-mile of the Gotham on April 15 at Aqueduct his next scheduled start. He's likely to wind up his Derby preparations in the 1⅛ miles of the Wood Memorial at Aqueduct April 22.

Meantime, Reflected Glory faces no easy task in the Florida Derby. He'll take on among others, In Reality, runner-up in the Flamingo and winner of the Foundation of Youth, and Great Power, whom trainer Eddie Neloy confidently expects to show improvement after disappointing in the Fountain of Youth.

Brewer Eyes Masters After Pensacola Open Victory

'Going All Out,' Ohio Golfer Says

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — "I think I can win the Masters — that's the one I really want," Gay Brewer said today after making a travesty of par in winning his second straight Pensacola Open Golf Tournament.

"I'm playing well. I feel I have a good chance at Augusta. I'm going all out for it."

Wining the Masters holds a special allure for the 35-year-old veteran from Middletown, Ohio, just as repeating in Pensacola enabled him to prove something to himself and others.

Last year Brewer backed into the Pensacola crown when the popular Doug Sanders, leading by four strokes, was disqualified after the third round for failing to sign his score card.

"Nobody spots me four strokes and beats me," a disgruntled Sanders remarked bitterly afterward — a comment said in haste for which he later was sorry.

Brewer took it to heart. "I'd have liked the chance to see whether I could have caught him or not — it's been done," Brewer said. "So I was really anxious to win this tournament this year." He won spectacularly.

Spewing birdies and eagles over the 6,380-yard par 72 Pensacola Country Club course, he scored a near-record 66-64-61-71 —262 for a six-stroke victory over 36-year-old home pro Bob Keller of the nearby Eglin Air Force Base.

After firing 26 birdies and an eagle in the first three rounds to go 25 under par and increasing that to 29 under par through 66 holes, Brewer looked ready to catch Mike Souchak's all-time record of 257 for 72 holes, set on the Brackenridge course at San Antonio, Tex., in 1955.

But the rains came, Brewer bogeyed three of the finishing holes and he had to settle for a score of 26 under.

At the Masters last year, the pug-nosed midwesterner had the traditional green coat virtually in his closet when he came to the final hole needing only a par to win. He three-putted from 40 feet, missing a crucial seven-footer, and tied Jack Nicklaus and Tommy Jacobs at 288.

In the playoff, Nicklaus won with a 70. Tommy shot a 72 and Brewer skied to a 78.

Brewer, in scoring his first tournament victory since the same tournament a year ago, won $15,000. Keller grabbed $9,000, thanks to a fine trap recovery on the final hole, beating out Sanders, who won third money of $5,625. Keller shot 65 for 268, Sanders 64 for 269.

Then came Ken Still, 71 for 271, followed by a quintet at 272 — young Jim Colbert, George Archer, Bobby Nichols, Dan Sikes and Tommy Jacobs.

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Reflected Glory, pride of the Hirsch Jacobs Stable, and Damascus, beaten only one in six career starts, today rate as co-favorites for the May 6 running of the Kentucky Derby.

But Reflected Glory, quoted at 5-1 in the future books' opening line after a convincing triumph in the Flamingo at Hialeah Park, could change all of that Saturday in the 1⅛ miles of the Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

Damascus, rated no better than 12-1 in the opening line, moved in on the Jacobs-trained 3-year-old last Saturday by posting a convincing victory in the $28,600 Bay Shore at Aqueduct for his second success of the year and his fifth after losing his first race as a 2-year-old.

Reflected Glory, a come-from-behind type, didn't even figure in the 2-year-old ratings of 1966. Damascus picked up many backers after beating the Jacobs colt in the one-mile of the Remsen in his final start of a light-campaign.

Jockey Bill Shoemaker lost no time last Saturday telling all who would listen that Damascus was his Derby mount. That was when the Frank Whitely-trained horse whipped Aqueduct's mud, the fleet Disciplinarian and Solo Landing, the odds-on-favorite who was working on a string of five straight victories.

The paths of Reflected Glory, a son of Jester, and Damascus, an offspring of Sword Dancer, who ran second in the 1959 Kentucky Derby, are not likely to cross until the 1¼-mile run for the roses. After the Florida Derby, Reflected Glory is expected to head for Kentucky with his final prep in the Blue Grass at Keeneland April 27.

Damascus was back at his Laurel, Md., barn today with the one-mile of the Gotham on April 15 at Aqueduct his next scheduled start. He's likely to wind up his Derby preparations in the 1⅛ miles of the Wood Memorial at Aqueduct April 22.

Meantime, Reflected Glory faces no easy task in the Florida Derby. He'll take on among others, In Reality, runner-up in the Flamingo and winner of the Foundation of Youth, and Great Power, whom trainer Eddie Neloy confidently expects to show improvement after disappointing in the Fountain of Youth.

Bill Fitch Named As BG Cage Coach

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—William C. (Bill) Fitch, who has coached at the University of North Dakota the last five years, today was named head basketball coach at Bowling Green State University.

The 34-year-old Fitch, a graduate of Coe College in Iowa in 1954, succeeds Warren (Porky) Scholler who resigned recently after four seasons with the Falcons.

Fitch's appointment, effective immediately, was announced by BG Athletic Director Doyt L. Perry.

His record at North Dakota in five years has been an impressive 92 - 44 with three straight championships in the North Central Conference.

Fitch came to North Dakota in the 1962-63 season and led the Sioux to their first winning season in 10 years.

Before that, he was head basketball and baseball coach at Coe College. Prior to that position, Fitch was head baseball and freshman basketball coach at Creighton University for two years.

Fitch lettered both in basketball and baseball at Coe and received a masters at Creighton in 1959. He is married and has three children.

The university reportedly screened 100 candidates before selecting Fitch to replace Scholler who quit after Bowling Green, picked to win the Mid-American Conference, finished with an 11-13 record and low in the standings.

Scholler's four-year log at BG was 43-52.

Dulles Reportedly Saw Chance Of Saving Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former assistant to President Dwight D. Eisenhower tabs John Foster Dulles, then secretary of state, as probably the only top government official who believed in 1954 there was a chance to save South Vietnam from the Communists.

But another official recalls that even Dulles said "our chances of saving the situation there are not more than one in ten."

The comments were published in the spring issue of "University, A Princeton Quarterly." They are taken from a collection of 275 interviews with persons who knew the late Dulles.

Lt. Gen. Andrew Goodpaster, a staff assistant to Eisenhower, told of Dulles' thinking soon after the 1954 French defeat at Dien Bien Phu and subsequent partition of Vietnam into the Communist north and non-Communist south.

"On studying this over, Mr. Dulles thought that it (South Vietnam) was perhaps not quite down the drain. Everyone else, I think, felt that it was. He felt that there might be something in this that would be worth trying to salvage, trying to sustain."

Goodpaster said Dulles initiated a mission in November 1954 to see "whether a viable military position could be created in South Vietnam.

"So far as I know, it was Mr. Dulles who came up with that. At least he brought it up to the President, the two of them talked it over. They thought that there might be some possibility in it, that it was at least worth giving it a try, rather than just write the thing off, which had been the disposition until that time."

The mission was undertaken by Gen. J. Lawton Collins, retired Army chief of staff. Collins quotes Dulles as offering the one-in-ten assessment.

On Feb. 12, 1955, U.S. advisors began training South Vietnamese forces—the beginning of direct military involvement which now involves hundreds of thousands of U.S. military men in the Southeast Asian country.

Collins said that in the spring of 1955, Dulles told him the chances for saving South Vietnam had been increased to 50-50.

Goodpaster also recalls Dulles opposing any cut of U.S. troop strength in Europe despite Eisenhower's desire to reduce it to about 1½ divisions. Goodpaster does not say when this happened.

The article quotes Eisenhower as recalling a disagreement with Dulles about whether U.S spy plane flights over the Soviet Union could produce a problem between the two countries.

"I said, 'Well, boys, I believe the country needs this information and I'm going to approve it. But I'll tell you one thing, some day one of these machines is going to be caught, and we're going to have a storm,'" Eisenhower said.

"Foster alwways disagreed with me. He said 'the Russians will never make a protest. They're not going ever to admit that they were incapable of interfering with them.'"

Eisenhower was proved right when a furor followed the shooting down of a U2 reconnaissance plane in May 1960.

Road Crews Gain Support In Pay Fight

BECKLEY (AP) — Northern Panhandle State Road Commission hourly workers picked up support here and in Fayette County during the weekend in demands for a pay raise.

Raleigh and Fayette county hourly SRC workers agreed almost to the man to honor the 4 p.m. Friday deadline for the SRC to approve the wage demands or face a walkout.

Demands for a 50-cent an hour pay raise plus time and one-half pay for all hours worked over eight in one day were first made nearly three weeks ago by SRC hourly workers in Marshall and Ohio counties.

They have given State Road Commissioner Burl Sawyers until Friday to meet the demands. Sawyers already has offered a 10 per cent pay raise to the workers, but they have turned it down.

Sawyers said the 10 per cent raise would cost the state another $2 million per year.

Rosco D. Loudermilk, a spokesman for the Raleigh County SRC hourly workers here, said Saturday that "we're asking for the same thing as the men up north and we have agreed to walk out Friday if the conditions are not met."

The Marshall and Ohio counties SRC hourly workers also have been supported by similar workers in Hancock, Brooke and Wetzel counties.

Loudermilk said 62 of Raleigh County's some 65 hourly workers have signed an agreement to honor the walkout.

A Fayette County spokesman said more than 100 hourly workers have agreed to quit working if pay demands are not met.

Vandalism Incidents Damage 5 Autos Here

Five parked autos were damaged in weekend vandalism, police reported.

The radio antennas were broken off three autos while they were parked on W. 7th St. about 8:40 Saturday night. The owners were listed as Robert Duke of 243 W. 7th St., Ethel Grimm of R. D. 1 and John R. Fitzsimmons of R. D. 2.

J. E. Brennen of 1060 Huston Ave. reported Saturday afternoon a BB damaged the windshield of his 1959 auto while it was parked at his home Friday night or early Saturday.

Howard Brindley of 719 North St. reported the antenna was broken off his auto and all four tires were deflated while it was parked at his home Sunday night or early today.

Grand Jury To Open Hearings

FBI Continues Its Probe Of Cosa Nostra Graveyard

JACKSON TOWNSHIP, N.J. (AP) — The FBI continued its investigation today into what was believed to be a graveyard for the Cosa Nostra.

"We have completed the search at 355 Cooke Road and at the shed on the east side of Cooke Road," said an FBI spokesman, "and have no additional statement to make at this time. Our investigation is continuing."

Rumors circulated widely after two bodies were unearthed Friday on what was once a 20-acre chicken farm, owned by Joseph Celso, 49, and his wife, Rose, 46.

The other was at first presumed to be Angelo Sonnessa, who was 48 when he disappeared in 1961 from his home in Nutley, N.J. Some later reports indicated that Sonnessa's body had not been found.

Dr. Milton Helpern, New York City medical examiner and one of the nation's top medical sleuths who performed an autopsy on the second body, denied Sunday night that the autopsy had resulted in any kind of identification.

"All I had was a body," he said. "The identity of the person is unknown. All I did was present my findings to the authorities. I don't know who it (the body) was."

There were reports Saturday that a third body had been found. Federal agents refused to confirm or deny them.

The remains of Later, which were discovered in an oil drum filled with hydrochloric acid and were largely decomposed, had been sent to the FBI laboratory in Washington for analysis.

The FBI remained mute on any direct link between Later and the Cosa Nostra.

The Celsos, who are being held in lieu of $100,000 bail as material witnesses, were allowed to attend the funeral Sunday of Mrs. Celso's sister, Blanch Tody, in New York. Mrs. Tody died Thursday, the same day the FBI served the Celsos with a search warrant.

They were escorted under guard to the funeral and returned — Mrs. Celso to the Passaic County jail in Paterson, and Celso to the federal house of detention in New York.

Both are scheduled to appear Wednesday before the federal grand jury.

U.S. King Of Silk Industry In Thai Is Reported Missing

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — James Thompson, the American king of Thailand's silk industry, has been missing for more than 24 hours in the jungles of the Cameron highlands resort area, Malaysian police reported today.

Thompson, 61, is one of the best known Americans in Southeast Asia.

Visiting a friend in the Malaysian hill resort, Thompson went for a walk Sunday afternoon in the jungle. When he did not return after about three hours, a search was launched but the darkness hampered it.

Thompson headed an Office of Strategic Services team for Thailand during World War II and has lived in Bangkok ever since the Japanese surrender.

When he settled in Bangkok, the production of the brilliantly colored Thai silks by native cottage workers had died out. Thompson revived it, assembling designers to recreate and enlarge the color combinations and patterns, and training workers to produce the silks on home looms.

He brought his product to New York, interested fashon designers and home decorators and built up an international marketing and promotion organization. His silks are now one of Thailand's best known exports to the Western world.

Raleigh and Fayette county hourly SRC workers agreed almost to the man to honor the 4 p.m. Friday deadline for the SRC to approve the wage demands or face a walkout.

Demands for a 50-cent an hour pay raise plus time and one-half pay for all hours worked over eight in one day were first made nearly three weeks ago by SRC hourly workers in Marshall and Ohio counties.

They have given State Road Commissioner Burl Sawyers until Friday to meet the demands. Sawyers already has offered a 10 per cent pay raise to the workers, but they have turned it down.

Sawyers said the 10 per cent raise would cost the state another $2 million per year.

Rosco D. Loudermilk, a spokesman for the Raleigh County SRC hourly workers here, said Saturday that "we're asking for the same thing as the men up north and we have agreed to walk out Friday if the conditions are not met."

The Marshall and Ohio counties SRC hourly workers also have been supported by similar workers in Hancock, Brooke and Wetzel counties.

Loudermilk said 62 of Raleigh County's some 65 hourly workers have signed an agreement to honor the walkout.

A Fayette County spokesman said more than 100 hourly workers have agreed to quit working if pay demands are not met.

"We have completed the search at 355 Cooke Road and at the shed on the east side of Cooke Road," said an FBI spokesman, "and have no additional statement to make at this time. Our investigation is continuing."

Rumors circulated widely after two bodies were unearthed Friday on what was once a 20-acre chicken farm, owned by Joseph Celso, 49, and his wife, Rose, 46.

One is believed to be the remains of Kenneth Later, 55, a stockbroker who disappeared from his midtown Manhattan home in March 1963.

The other was at first presumed to be Angelo Sonnessa, who was 48 when he disappeared in 1961 from his home in Nutley, N.J. Some later reports indicated that Sonnessa's body had not been found.

Dr. Milton Helpern, New York City medical examiner and one of the nation's top medical sleuths who performed an autopsy on the second body, declined Sunday night that the autopsy had resulted in any kind of identification.

"All I had was a body," he said. "The identity of the person is unknown. All I did was present my findings to the authorities. I don't know who it (the body) was."

There were reports Saturday that a third body had been found. Federal agents refused to confirm or deny them.

The remains of Later, which were discovered in an oil drum filled with hydrochloric acid and were largely decomposed, had been sent to the FBI laboratory in Washington for analysis.

The FBI remained mute on any direct link between Later and the Cosa Nostra.

The Celsos, who are being held in lieu of $100,000 bail as material witnesses, were allowed to attend the funeral Sunday of Mrs. Celso's sister, Blanch Tody, in New York. Mrs. Tody died Thursday, the same day the FBI served the Celsos with a search warrant.

They were escorted under guard to the funeral and returned — Mrs. Celso to the Passaic County jail in Paterson, and Celso to the federal house of detention in New York.

Both are scheduled to appear Wednesday before the federal grand jury.

U.S. King Of Silk Industry In Thai Is Reported Missing

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — James Thompson, the American king of Thailand's silk industry, has been missing for more than 24 hours in the jungles of the Cameron highlands resort area, Malaysian police reported today.

Thompson, 61, is one of the best known Americans in Southeast Asia.

Visiting a friend in the Malaysian hill resort, Thompson went for a walk Sunday afternoon in the jungle. When he did not return after about three hours, a search was launched but the darkness hampered it.

At least 100 police, troops and civilian volunteers searched through the jungle today but found no trace of Thompson by evening.

Thompson headed an Office of Strategic Services team for Thailand during World War II and has lived in Bangkok ever since the Japanese surrender.

When he settled in Bangkok, the production of the brilliantly colored Thai silks by native cottage workers had died out. Thompson revived it, assembling designers to recreate and enlarge the color combinations and patterns, and training workers to produce the silks on home looms.

He brought his product to New York, interested fashon designers and home decorators and built up an international marketing and promotion organization. His silks are now one of Thailand's best known exports to the Western world.

Faulty Brakes Blamed

3 Cars Damaged In 5th St. Mishap

Three cars were damaged, but no one was injured, in a crash at E. 5th and Walnut Sts. Saturday afternoon blamed on brake failure in one auto.

The mishap at 3 p. m. involved a 1960 sedan driven by Edward Duley, 63, of 931½ Cedar Ave., Wellsville; a 1955 two-door sedan operated by Charles V. Wagoner, 54, of 756 Price St. and a 1960 sedan driven by Lester D. Roach, 19, of 439 Virginia Ave.

Duley was halted on E. 5th St., headed west and waiting for the traffic light to change, and Wagoner was driving south on Walnut St. and making a turn east onto E. 5th St. Roach was traveling west on E. 5th St. when his brakes failed, officers said. Roach pulled around Duley's halted car and in doing so hit both the Duley car and the Wagoner auto, officers said.

THE MISHAP damaged the left front fender of Duley's car, the left front door and quarter panel of the Wagoner auto and the right door and quarter panel of the Roach auto.

A collision at E. 3rd and Walnut Sts. at 4:42 p. m. Sunday involved a 1963 two-door sedan driven by Sherman L. Griggs, 22, of Lisbon R. D. 3 and a 1960 two-door sedan operated by Roy Manypenny Jr., 38, of 2029 St. Clair Ave.

Griggs told police he was driving east about 25 miles an hour when Manypenny's car pulled in front of him at the intersection. He said he applied his brakes and swerved to the right in an unsuccessful attempt to avoid a collision.

Manypenny reported he was halted on Walnut St. waiting for traffic to clear. When the Westbound traffic on E. 3rd St. halted, he pulled into the intersection and the collision resulted, he said.

TWO CARS also were damaged in a mishap Sunday at 12:25 p. m. on Boyce St. at Mapletree St.

The collision involved a 1965 model station wagon driven by Marilyn Joy Wagner, 31, of Calcutta and a 1962 four-door sedan operated by Benjamin Ferrebee, 54, of 1071 Elmwood St.

The woman said she pulled onto Boyce St. from Mapletree St., hitting the Ferrebee car. She said she was unable to see the approaching auto because of a vehicle parked at the intersection.

A mishap on the Westgate School lot at 2:45 a. m. Sunday damaged a 1965 two-door sedan driven by Judy Vaughn, 21, of Williams Ave., Fisher Park, and a 1966 two-door sedan operated by Donald Hildebrand, 23, of 1254 Northside Ave., officers said.

There was damage to the right front fender of the Vaughn car and the left quarter panel of the Hildebrand auto.

President, First Lady Were 'Very Easterish'

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson looked "very Easterish" according to one of the few persons to see them on Easter Sunday.

That was the description Mrs. William H. Fallowfield gave after the presidential couple dropped in Sunday on Episcopal services being led by Mrs. Fallowfield's husband in a small church in Smithsburg Md.

The Johnsons, who were weekending at their lodge at Camp David in the Catoctin Mountains, picked St. Ann's Church for their Easter devotions without announcing their plans beforehand.

The Rev. Mr. Fallowfield found he had the President in the congregation only when he turned from the altar to begin reading a list of church announcements.

The President took communion, he said.

The White House gave no firm indication of when the President would be returning to Washington.

Rep. and Mrs. George Mahon of Texas were also in the President's party.

After the services Johnson shook hands and exchanged greetings with the Rev. Mr. Fallowfield, his wife and a large part of the congregation of approximately 100 persons. He was at the wheel for the 11 mile drive back to Camp David, said witnesses.

When Brazil recently played an international soccer tournament, the sale of transistor radios soared and business ground to a halt.

Homecoming Queen In 1962 Claimed By Cancer At 20

CLEVELAND (AP)—When Mrs. Charles Semosky thought she was pregnant last November, it raised her and her husband's hopes. They had lost their first baby because of miscarriage five months before.

But instead of being pregnant, Mrs. Semosky learned that she had a terminal case of cancer, the disease which took her right leg when she was a senior at West Tech High School.

Twenty-year-old Darlene Semosky died in her sleep Saturday of a cancer that had reappeared and spread through her kidneys.

"I'm half ashamed to cry at her coffin," said her mother, Mrs. Gene Piazza. "She was a very brave child."

In the fall of 1962, Darlene Piazza was elected homecoming queen at West Tech in a landslide victory. She received 2,000 of 3,000 votes.

Next year, she lost her leg in her fight with bone cancer, but her mother said she never lost her smile.

The way she fought her battles brought national attention the same year when a longtime friend of her mother, Mrs. Peter Vitonis, appeared on the first "Queen For A Day" broadcast in Cleveland and asked that Darlene be given the chance to walk up and receive her diploma.

Darlene was married last year in January at St. Colman Catholic Church, where she was baptized and where services will be held Tuesday.

Last January, she spent her first wedding anniversary confined to what would become her deathbed at her parents' home.

University, Police Study 'Muggings'

CINCINNATI (AP)—A meeting between University of Cincinnati and police officials was set today in hopes of finding ways to cope with recent muggings in the campus area.

Students returning to the campus Sunday from a week's spring vacation expressed mixed reactions to the fatal beating of a graduate student, Jesse E. Woodman. Woodman was attacked by two youths Thursday night and died the next night.

"Around here, nothing's surprising any more," said Diane Krandall, a coed from Dayton. "Students even have been attacked right on campus."

Ralph C. Bursiekk UC vice president for business affairs said the "apparent increase in muggings" in the Clifton Area, where the university is located, is a city problem, but that the university will cooperate in attempts to find solutions to end them.

"Police have been working closely with us," Bursiekk added, "and we have had very good city support in our efforts to develop security both on and off the campus."

On Saturday morning, Dr. Emil Gritti was beaten and and robbed by four youths as he stopped his car at a stop sign in the same area where Woodman was beaten. The psysician was not hurt seriously.

University, Police Study 'Muggings'

CINCINNATI (AP)—A meeting between University of Cincinnati and police officials was set today in hopes of finding ways to cope with recent muggings in the campus area.

Students returning to the campus Sunday from a week's spring vacation expressed mixed reactions to the fatal beating of a graduate student, Jesse E. Woodman. Woodman was attacked by two youths Thursday night and died the next night.

"Around here, nothing's surprising any more," said Diane Krandall, a coed from Dayton. "Students even have been attacked right on campus."

Ralph C. Bursiekk UC vice president for business affairs said the "apparent increase in muggings" in the Clifton Area, where the university is located, is a city problem, but that the university will cooperate in attempts to find solutions to end them.

"Police have been working closely with us," Bursiekk added, "and we have had very good city support in our efforts to develop security both on and off the campus."

On Saturday morning, Dr. Emil Gritti was beaten and and robbed by four youths as he stopped his car at a stop sign in the same area where Woodman was beaten. The psysician was not hurt seriously.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A most unusual thing occurred recently at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles. I believe it will interest you. A woman drove up in front of the hotel and left a box with the doorman. The note pasted to the box read as follows:

"Dear Sir: Here are the items my son took from the Acapulco Hilton. An embarrassed Mother."

Clipped to her note was a copy of your column which dealt with stealing from hotels under the guise of "souvenir collecting."

The contents of the box contained the following items which would have an approximate value of $300 to $400:

1 14-inch silver service tray.
3 bread and butter knives.
3 dinner knives.
3 forks.
3 teaspoons.
2 soup spoons.
1 ice tong.
4 drinking glasses.
2 bath towels.

As a past president of the California State Hotel and Motel Association, I'm sure I speak for all hotel and motel managers when I say thank you, Ann Landers, for your help. The problem of hotel pilfering is reaching incredible proportions and running into millions of dollars annually.

The fact that at least one young man was influenced by your comments to the extent that he returned the stolen articles, is evidence that some people do listen to you. We are most grateful for your support. — Robert A. Groves, General Manager, Beverly Hilton.

Dear Mr. Groves: Thank you for your letter. When I was a guest at another well-known Beverly Hills hotel in December, someone stole my diamond earrings. If his mother would return them to the doorman my day would be complete.

-:-

Just Bashful

Dear Ann: I am a 19-year-old girl who has a problem I've never heard of before. I'll bet you've never heard of it either.

I have been looking for a job for six months. Almost every job that interests me requires that I take a physical examination. I just can't bring myself to undress in front of a doctor. I also can't bear the thought of having a doctor put his hands on me.

I realize this is crazy, but I don't know what to do about it. My mother can't understand why I have not landed a job in all this time and I can't tell her. Please help me. — PETRIFIED.

Dear Pet: I assume you mean male doctor, so far heaven's sake go to a female doctor and get your physical so you can go to work. Then, use some of your salary for psychiatric help. If you expect to lead a normal life you must conquer your crippling inhibitions about your body.

-:-

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Steel Reports On Shipments

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel shipments for the second quarter are expected to reach 2.4 million net tons, higher than the first quarter but down slightly from the same period last year, Steel Magazine said today.

The metalworking weekly said that steel shipments for the first half of this year are expected to be about 43.6 million tons, 5 per cent off the first half of last year and about 15 per cent below the record 51.2 million tons moved in the first half of 1965.

Steel said the steel industry is being given a lift by seasonal expansion demands for plates, structurals and pipe. More steel tonnage for construction is beer, the magazine said.

Coupled with the rising volume of orders for tin plate, active tonnage movement is assured well into the second quarter, the mazagine said.

Propping up the market also are defense needs and miscellaneous manufacturing requirements, Steel said.

Bill Mazeroski, who says he has no desire to manage in the major leagues, is the captain of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The second baseman teamed with shortstop Gene Alley to set a National League double play record last year—215.

City Man's Band Invited To Expo '67 Performance

The New Brighton High School band, directed by Ted Koenig of East Liverpool, has accepted an invitation to represent the United States at a concert during the Expo 67 exhibition at Montreal.

Koenig, of 1882 Lisbon St. and a graduate of East Liverpool High School, is a former director of the Wellsville High School band.

The 140-member band will leave June 6 for the concert June 8 at the exhibition and will return June 10. The members will visit Niagara Falls and take a boat excursion in the Thousand Islands area.

The band, which played at the New York World's Fair in 1965, received a letter of congratulations from Rep. Frank Clark.

The band was invited to take part in the U.S. Pavilion concert at the Canadian event by the commissioner general of the United States.

Bridegroom Spends Wedding Night In Jail

CLEVELAND (AP)—A bridegroom who didn't listen to his bride of a few hours spent his wedding night in jail Saturday.

"I'll never forget it,' said the new Mrs. Lazlo Szommer of her wedding.

Szommer, 32, and his bride, Edelhud Weiste, 28, were married Saturday at city hall.

Then they went to a wedding party with friends. Afterward, her husband decided to drive home one of his friends, Mrs. Szommer said.

"I told him he was in no condition to drive the car," she said. "I offered to drive."

About 4:15 p.m., police said the Szommer car hit the rear of an auto driven by Mrs. Helen Pataki, 44.

Police quoted Mrs. Pataki as saying Szommer got out of his car and when she refused an offer of $5 for repairs, he drove away.

At first, he refused to go. Then he started across the street to the police cruiser, they said. Halfway across, Szommer swung at Duda, according to the police report. He was carried to the cruiser and taken to jail.

"We weren't going anywhere in particular for a honeymoon," Mrs. Szommer said when she bailed out her husband Sunday.

The couple left the police station by bus. Their car had been impounded.

The executive board of United Auto Workers Local 1036 met Sunday and voted to recommend the proposal to its 1,300 members represented at the plant.

Terms of the tentative agreement, reached Friday between the union's negotiating committee and company officials, were not disclosed.

Sun And Glass Jug Are Blamed In Fire

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Firemen said Sunday's hot sun combined with a glass jug of white vinegar near a display window to set fire to 24 pairs of gloves at Zig's Food Market here.

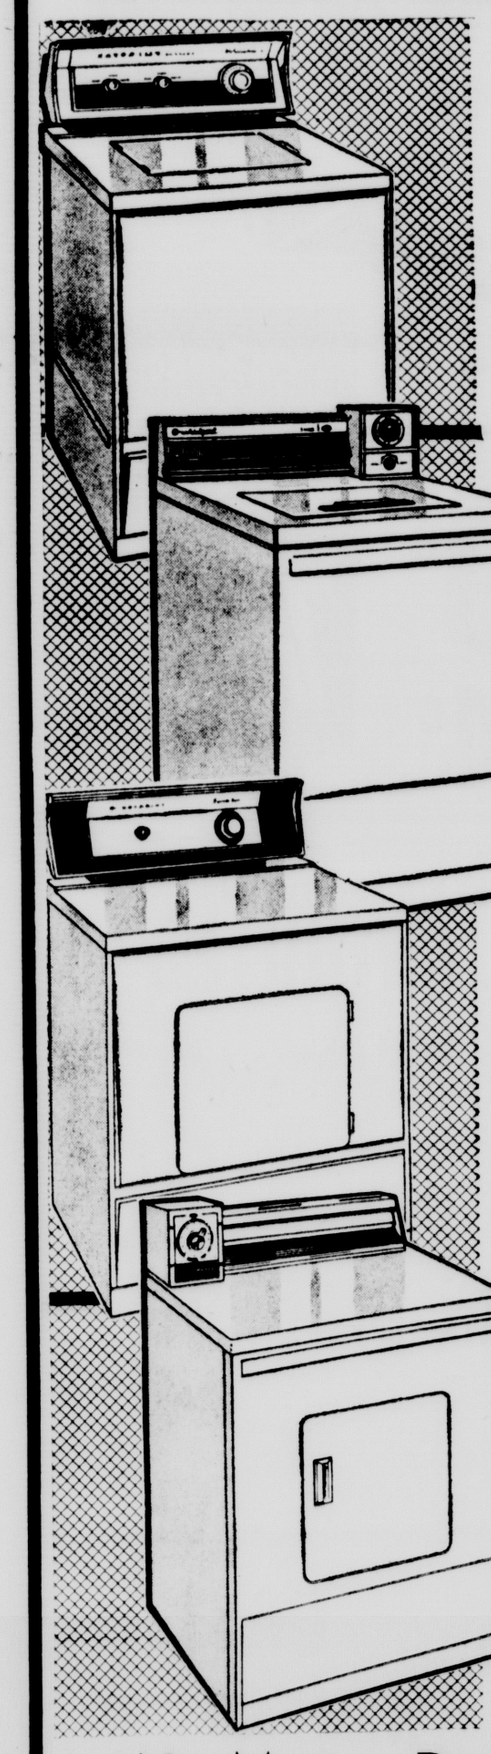

The jug acted as a magnifying glass, concentrating the sun's rays, firemen said.

Bridegroom Spends Wedding Night In Jail

CLEVELAND (AP)—A bridegroom who didn't listen to his bride of a few hours spent his wedding night in jail Saturday.

"I'll never forget it,' said the new Mrs. Lazlo Szommer of her wedding.

Szommer, 32, and his bride, Edelhud Weiste, 28, were married Saturday at city hall.

Then they went to a wedding party with friends. Afterward, her husband decided to drive home one of his friends, Mrs. Szommer said.

"I told him he was in no condition to drive the car," she said. "I offered to drive."

About 4:15 p.m., police said the Szommer car hit the rear of an auto driven by Mrs. Helen Pataki, 44.

Police quoted Mrs. Pataki as saying Szommer got out of his car and when she refused an offer of $5 for repairs, he drove away.

At first, he refused to go. Then he started across the street to the police cruiser, they said. Halfway across, Szommer swung at Duda, according to the police report. He was carried to the cruiser and taken to jail.

"We weren't going anywhere in particular for a honeymoon," Mrs. Szommer said when she bailed out her husband Sunday.

He was charged with driving while intoxicated, obstructing justice and resisting arrest.

The couple left the police station by bus. Their car had been impounded.

Chalmers Employes To Vote On Contract

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Striking employes of Allis — Chalmers Manufacturing Co.'s transformer plant on the city's North Side were scheduled to vote today on a new four-year contract which would end a 4½-month strike.

The executive board of United Auto Workers Local 1036 met Sunday and voted to recommend the proposal to its 1,300 members represented at the plant.

Terms of the tentative agreement, reached Friday between the union's negotiating committee and company officials, were not disclosed.

Sun And Glass Jug Are Blamed In Fire

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Firemen said Sunday's hot sun combined with a glass jug of white vinegar near a display window to set fire to 24 pairs of gloves at Zig's Food Market here.

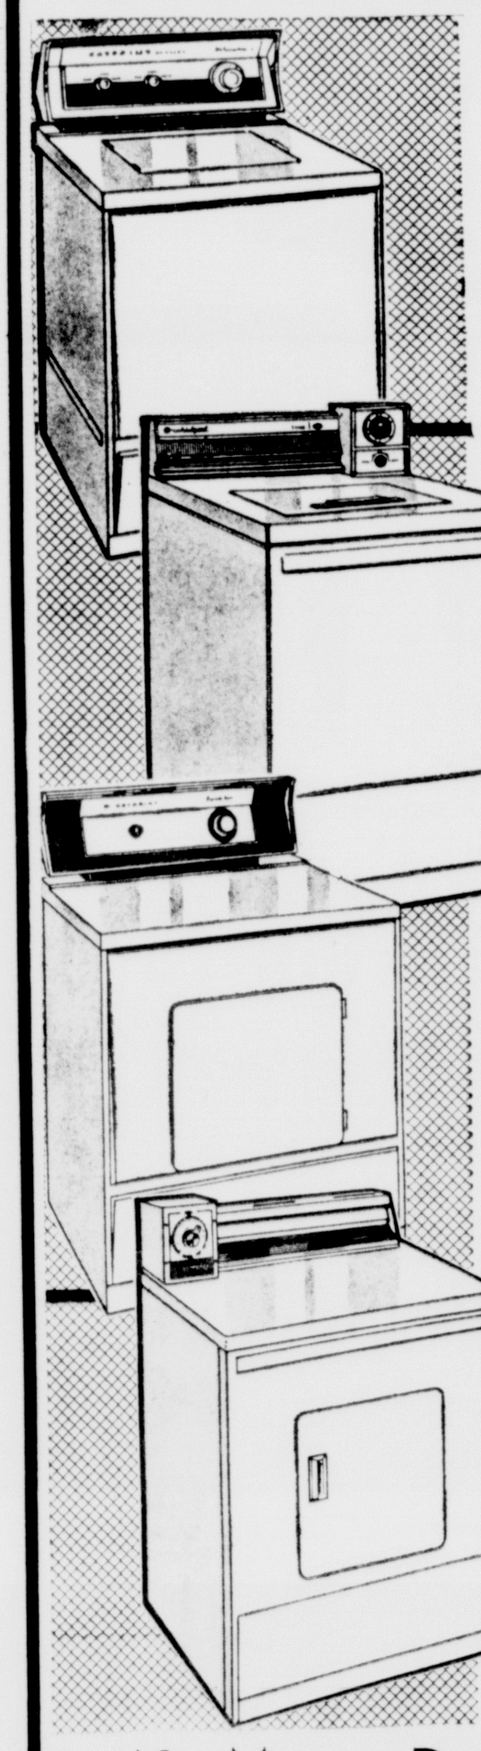

The jug acted as a magnifying glass, concentrating the sun's rays, firemen said.

Serbians Vote For Church Leadership

CLEVELAND (AP) — Several hundred Serbians voted Sunday to determine the leadership of St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Church in Parma. The results will be turned over to Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Judge Thomas J. Parrino.

Clarence Fowerbaugh, court-appointed special commissioner in charge of the election, said ballots were impounded when voting ended and results will not be made public for several days.

Fowerbaugh said there were some challenged ballots and these would have to be decided by Judge Parrino. Lawyers for both sides in the religious dispute were allowed to remain while votes were being tabulated.

A split in the church membership occurred in 1962 with factions supporting either Thomas Simich or Milan Naperta.

The Simich group adopted the church's $500 building assessment in 1962 and said they are loyal to the church's patriarch in Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

The Naperta group rejected the building assessment as well as the Belgrade hierarchy, which they said is dominated by the Tito regime.

The building assessment was designed to defray the congregation's $400,000 debt for construction of the church.

New York's Firemen Set 'Slowdown'

NEW YORK (AP) — The head of the AFL-CIO Uniformed Firemen's Association says that on Thursday or Friday the city's 10,500 firemen will start a work slowdown, responding only to fire calls and emergencies.

Gerald F. Ryan, association president, said Sunday the union's delegate assembly would meet today to set a date for starting the partial work stoppage designed to pressure the city in a pay dispute.

The firemen have been working without a contract since last July. They are demanding the annual base pay for top-grade firefighters be increased by $2,000 to $10,500.

John J. Cassese, president of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, said Sunday that off-duty policemen would begin picketing City Hall Thursday. The PBA is bargaining jointly with the firemen and has also threatened a slowdown.

Cassese has said the police will not strike.

Both he and Ryan appeared on WCBS radio "Let's Find Out" program. They said the only way to avert the threatened slowdowns would be for Mayor John V. Lindsay to meet with them.

Lindsay refused to comment on the dispute Sunday.

During the slowdown, Ryan said, firemen would refuse to make fire inspections, would discontinue drills and training, and would perform only limited maintenance.

Danish Ship In Danger In Heavy Seas

THORSHAVN, Faroe Islands (AP) — The Danish trawler Nolsoyar Pall with 22 men aboard was reported in danger of sinking in a raging North Atlantic storm today, and four fishermen who left the ship on a rubber raft were missing.

The Danish naval command said the trawler's cargo of salt shifted and the 312-ton vessel sent distress signals Sunday night after it began to list in heavy seas.

The naval command said the trawler's crew took the risky chance of opening the hatches in spite of the high seas and started shifting the salt cargo by hand in an attempt to put the ship on even keel.

If this operation proved successful, the captain, Ludvig Ryggstein, 38, planned to proceed to a Faroe port with an assisting West German vessel.

American planes searched for the missing crewmen. The men still on the trawler were unable to board two other rafts before gale winds blew them away.

Bound for Greenland, the trawler was reported 150 miles west of its home port of Thorshavn, capital of the Faroe Islands. The islands between Iceland and the Shetland Islands north of Britain belong to Denmark and have about 30,000 residents, largely fishermen and sheep herders.

2-Day Parley To Study 200 Anti-Crime Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 500 law enforcement officials, judges, professors and state legislators will confer Tuesday and Wednesday on how to implement more than 200 recommendations made by the National Crime Commission.

It will be the first opportunity for a broad-based critique of the 352-page report, issued last month after more than 18 months of work by the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice.

The report contains thousands of statistics and adds recommendations on topics ranging from alcoholism to development of a national strategy to fight organized crime.

The commission believes one of its most important findings—the result of a survey of 10,000 representative American households—is that throughout the nation "there is far more crime than ever is reported."

It found there are more than twice as many aggravated assaults and larcenies of more than $50 as are reported, half again more robberies, and, in some areas, "only one-tenth of the total number of certain kinds of crime are reported to the police."

The recommendations call for changes in police operations, schools, prosecutors, employment agencies, social workers, prisons, housing authorities and probation and parole officers.

When the report was issued nearly 40,000 copies were distributed free to state legislators, mayors, police and court officials, news media, congressmen and others concerned with law enforcement.

An additional 10,000 were printed for sale to the public at $2.25 each. The government printing office reports that about 8,000 have been sold and that it has already made a second printing of 10,000.

James Vorenberg, a Harvard University law professor on leave to be executive director of the commission, said comments he has received so far "run 19 to 1 in favor of the report and its recommendations."

But he added there has been "some minor criticism from the far left and perhaps a little stronger from the far right."

In the field of narcotics, for example, some critics have suggested that the United States adopt the British system of registering addicts and supplying them with whatever narcotics they need.

The commission recommended staff increases for the Bureau of Customs and Bureau of Narcotics and involuntary commitment of addicts.

But the commission believes that the emphasis should be taken off punishment and placed on treatment.

There also have been suggestions that the commission should have recommended a change in the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution to permit police wider latitude in questioning suspects.

The commission found, however, that while "every restriction that is placed on police procedures by the courts makes deterring or solving crimes more difficult it is also evident that police procedures must be controlled somehow."

A key court decision in questioning of suspects was the Miranda case. The Supreme Court ruled that interrogation in the isolated setting of a police station, without counsel, constitutes informal compulsion to confess.

As if in answer to those who would amend the Constitution to make station house questioning constitutional, the commission said "it is too early to assess the effect of the Miranda decision on law enforcement's ability to secure confessions and to solve crimes. But this and other decisions do represent a trend toward findings by the judiciary that previously permitted police practices are unconstitutionally offensive to the dignity and integrity of private citizens."

In a statement Sunday night, Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., chairman of a newly announced Republican task force on crime, said Congress should try to clarify Supreme Court rulings on rights of accused persons. He said the crime commission had failed to make proposals to end what he called a confused situation.

Poff praised the crime commission report in general, but disagreed with some details and said he fears "a mammoth police pyramid with its apex centered in Washington and its base spread into every precinct and hamlet in America."

Vorenberg places at the top of his priority list "the complete restructuring of the police departments — to get away from the idea there is only one type of police officer." He says it may take seven years to fully implement recommendations in this area, but a start should be made immediately.

Vorenberg said police community relations programs should be established now in all large communities, especially those with a substantial minority group population.

The commission found that too many policemen "misunderstand and are indifferent to minority group aspirations, attitudes and customs, and that incidents involving physical or verbal mistreatment of minority group citizens do occur and do contribute to a resentment against police that some minority group members feel."

Soviet Boat Captain Convicted

U.S. Authorities Await Soviet Payment Of Fine

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — U.S. authorities are awaiting payment of a $10,000 fine assessed against the captain of a Soviet fishing vessel seized in U.S. territorial waters.

Leonid Kushchenko, 29, of Vladivostok, was convicted Saturday of violating U.S. fishing waters and was jailed when he was unable to pay the fine.

The prosecutor, U.S. Atty. Richard McVeigh, said he expected the fine to be paid today, and when it is he will ask the Coast Guard to return Kushchenko to his trawler.

The vessel was seized last Wednesday off Alaska's Shumagin Islands within the nation's newly set 12-mile fisheries zone. The 178-foot ship and its cargo of shrimp was towed by the Coast Guard cutter Storis to Kodiak but was released late Saturday. However, bad weather kept the SRTM 8-457 from returning to the Soviet fishing fleet until Sunday afternoon when the Storis escorted the trawler 12 miles outside the U.S. fishing zone.

This was the second Soviet ship seized this month for fishing in U.S. waters. The first was on March 2 inside Alaska's three-mile limit, and the skipper, Nicolai Zernov, was fined $5,000 and freed. The fine was paid two weeks later.

Coast Guard Cmdr. George W. Hardy Jr., captain of the Storis, said 14 other Soviet fishing vessels were in the area where Kushchenko's trawler was turned loose.

When Kushchenko appeared before U. S. Dist. Judge James von der Hidydt Saturday, he said through an interpreter, "I ask you to consider that the Soviet government respects the sovereignty of the United States government, and that I will be severely punished for my violation."

The judge found Kushchenko guilty after the Soviet captain pleaded no contest, as Zernov did earlier.

Kushchenko's fine was the maximum. The judge could have sentenced the Soviet skipper, who is married and the father of two, to prison and ordered his trawler and its cargo confiscated.

Area Mishap Injures Youth

SALINEVILLE—Charles Bettis Jr., 17, of 1 Lincoln St., Salineville, is listed as "fairly good" this morning in City Hospital after being injured Sunday morning in an accident here.

Police Chief Bard Dietzel said Bettis attempted to pass an auto driven by Albert Ketchum of Salineville R.D. 2 as Ketchum was turning left into a driveway.

The chief said Bettis' auto struck the other car in the left front and shoved it up over a curb and into a yard. The Bettis car then hit a light pole.

Ketchum was released from City Hospital yesterday after treatment of a back injury. A passenger, Donald Saltsman, received treatment from a local physician. Bettis suffered facial lacerations.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

The Real Thing Is Hard To Recognize

Reality and fiction are juxtaposed on TV so promiscuously these days that it becomes difficult sometimes to keep one from fusing with the other, often to the detriment of reality.

Hal Humphrey

We know when we see our soldiers on the TV news in the Vietnam jungles that it is for real, of course. But we also see so many modern warfare battle scenes staged on Hollywood's movie lots that we can become almost adjusted to this made-up horror or, more tragically, even inured to a point of being unimpressed with the real thing.

-:-

FOR EXAMPLE, Tuesday the ABC-TV network pre-empts an episode of its fictional "Combat" series for "Our Time in Hell," a documentary of the U.S. Marine Corps' bloody hegira through the South Pacific in World War II.

Every piece of this film was shot by Marine Corps cameramen, and some 30 to 40 per cent of it never has been exposed to the public before.

Yet I couldn't help wondering as I watched a preview of it just how many viewers still would not find themselves as emotionally interested or involved with the men in "Our Time in Hell' as with the weekly heroes in "Combat."

To a large extent "Our Time in Hell" is saved from being what has become looked upon as routine combat footage by a fine script prepared by producer-director Laurence E. Mascott, most of which is narrated by actor Lee Marvin, who fought with the Marines and participated in three of the island landings.

MASCOTT put together "The Brave Rifles," the story of the Battle of the Bulge, seen last December as part of ABC's "Stage 67" series. As a corporal in the infantry involved in that battle, Mascott says he felt qualified to tell what it's like to be a soldier in combat.

At a preview of his "Rifles" documentary in Washington, Mascott was asked by Marine Maj. William Boone if he wouldn't be interested in doing a similar TV documentary on the Marine Corps in the Pacific.

"I explained to the major that I'd never been in the Marine Corps, but he told me the only difference with a Marine is that he gets seasick. He also said," recalls Mascott, "that all of their combat film had been shot in color and that intrigued me."

MASCOTT had some bad moments after he returned to Hollywood and Maj. Boone forwarded a portion of the film. Laboratory technicians reported it was "unusable." Climate and age had shrunk it, obliterating the sprocket holes and fading the color.

He kept making the rounds, finally finding some specialists for film rejuvenation.

"It's quite complex and tricky," says Mascott. "The chemicals which had deteriorated were reinjected into the film through a process of vaporization and the film was stretched. But we had to work fast in taking our duplicates from it, because within 48 hours the film would deteriorate to its original unusable form."

ONCE the film was saved, Mascott began his research for the script, much of which went into writing soliloquies to project the thoughts of individual Marines before, during and after a battle.

These, plus Marvin's connective narration, give "Our Time in Hell" a sense of the realism so frequently missing from an overdramatic and superficial commentary written and delivered by a person or persons unacquainted with the real thing.

Besides Mascott's battle experiences, he has been a newspaperman in Chicago and taught Shakespeare at the University of Nevada in Reno. Mascott decided it was time to look for more remunerative work when his wife got herself a job dealing blackjack in one of Reno's gambling emporiums at $300 a week.

THE MASCOTTS then went to California, where he began writing for movies and TV. His interest in documentaries was sharpened when David Wolper assigned him to write "The Race for Space," which started Wolper on a highly successful career as a producer of TV nonfiction films.

Although still interested in turning out documentaries (he has another, "Those Crazy Americans," coming up on ABC later this year), Mascott admits that "nobody is knocking at my door" with assignments — probably because he digs a bit deeper than TV considers necessary for its generally superficial level of reporting.

So far, Mascott's biggest reward for his work in this field is the hundreds of letters from ex-GIs who've said, "You tell about war as it really was."

Legislators Returning To Work Again

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's lawmakers return from an Easter vacation tonight with most of the problems they faced opening day Jan. 2 still to be resolved.

Only routine floor sessions were planned to begin their 12th week of work but the pace figured to quicken with major bills up for consideration later in the week.

The House plans to vote Tuesday on a bill providing pay increases for an estimated 45,000 state employes while senators called up the same day a measure to control the hallucinatory drug LSD.

Virtually all the lawmakers' attention was devoted in the first two weeks of the session to the GOP administration's bond commission and apportionment proposals scheduled for a place on the May 2 ballot.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray R-3 Miami acknowledged that the constitutional proposals dominated the legislature's time but said that with the return from the 10-day Easter recess work will begin on "bread and butter" legislation.

Gray listed highway safety, air and water pollution, unemployment and workmen's compensation, and education among the most important areas in which work is planned.

Hearings are expected to start soon on the administration's two-year operating budget which in its present form calls for no new or additional taxes. But some observers maintain new taxes will be needed and that this will be shown by tax studies now nearing completion. Gov. James A. Rhodes has asserted he will hold the line on taxes.

The House is scheduled to begin hearings this week on an omnibus highway safety measure which would include compulsory motor vehicle inspection and driver examination.

Other house hearings are planned on bills to write into law an executive order banning racial discrimination in hiring on state projects, and to allow municipalities to levy up to a 1½ per cent income tax without voter approval. The limit now is one per cent.

Senate bills due for hearings would make extensive revisions in Ohio's banking laws and increase tax exemptions for water pollution control equipment.

Varied Incidents Investigated By Sheriff's Office

LISBON — The stoning of a Pennsylvania Railroad locomotive on the Kensington overpass was one of several miscellaneous complaints investigated over the weekend by the sheriff's department.

The operator of the Bayard Tower notified the sheriff at 7:56 p. m. Saturday that some boys broke the fireman's window on the westbound freight.

Charles Morlan of St. Jacob's Church Rd. called the sheriff at 8 a. m. Saturday to report the theft of a tool box and assorted tools from an enclosed porch at his home.

Lowell Sanor of North Georgetown Rd., near Willow Grove Grange, and Frank Grimes of Cunningham Rd., Salem R. D. 3, reported shooting incidents.

Sanor said someone in a vehicle shot out a security light Saturday night at his place. Grimes said pellets from a gun hit the side of his house and broke a storm window on his living room window about 8 p.m. Sunday.

John Bogdan, owner of Lake Eldorado on Route 30 four miles west of Lisbon, called at 5:05 p. m. Saturday relative to vandalism at the pavilion and grounds.

Someone broke into a gum machine at the New Waterford laundromat Sunday evening, owner Donald Clark of East Palestine reported at 11 last night.

Middletown Hospital Picketed By Employes

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Non-professional employes picketed Middletown Hospital today in support of a demand by Local 1171 of the Public Service Employes Union (AFL-CIO) for recognition as bargaining agent.

About 35 pickets were on hand but no effort was made to stop anyone from entering the hospital.

Walter Mischley, hospital administrator, said there were "some strangers" on the picket line but that others were hospital employes.

The union has claimed that 90 per cent of its hospital members made less than $3,000 in 1966. Mischley said there were 43 such employes but only 10 of them worked a full work week for the year. He said a 20 cents an hour pay increase has been granted and that no employe will make less than $3,000 in 1967.

4th Victim Claimed In Blaze At Ravenna

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—Ellis Turner, 27, died in Robinson Memorial Hospital early today of burns suffered in a fire Friday that also claimed his three small children.

Cause of the fire at the family's apartment in nearby Windham has not been determined.

The three children were Lora Lee, 6, Brenda Sue, 4, and Ellis Brent Jr., 7 months.

If more than one senator whose term will not so expire would represent the same district by following the provisions of this section, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of the state or other person as provided by section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall designate which senator shall represent the district and shall designate which district the other senator or senators shall represent for the balance of their term or terms.

In the event that any section of this Constitution relating to apportionment or any plan of apportionment made by the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general or any three of them, as determined to be invalid by either the Supreme Court of Ohio, or the Supreme Court of the United States, then notwithstanding any other provisions of this Constitution, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall ascertain and determine a plan of apportionment, including establishing terms of office and election of members of the General Assembly from districts designated in the plan, to be used until the next regular apportionment in conformity with such provisions of this constitution as are then valid.

Section 8. The governor shall give the auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general two weeks advance written notice of the date, time and place at which any ascertainment or determination is to be made pursuant to this article.

Section 9. The boundaries of house of representatives districts and senate districts from which representatives and senators were elected to the 107th General Assembly shall be the boundaries of house of representatives and senate districts until January 1, 1973, and representatives and senators elected in the general election in 1966 shall hold office for the terms to which they were elected. Section 10. The various provisions of this Article XI are intended to be severable, and the invalidity of one or more of such provisions shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

ARTICLE XI

Section 1. The governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state and attorney general, or any three of them, unless all five of them are members of the same political party, on a date designated by the governor, but which shall be between August 1 and October 1 in the year one thousand nine hundred seventy one, and every tenth year thereafter, shall ascertain and determine the ratios of representation as set forth in section 2 of this Article for a house of representatives of ninety - nine members and a senate of thirty-three members. If the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state and attorney general are all members of the same political party at any time they are to perform any duties pusuant to this Article, the treasurer of state shall not perform such duties and such duties shall be performed in his place by the person who was the candidate for secretary of state at the last election at which the secretary of state was elected of the major political party in this state of which the treasurer of state is not a member. If such candidate is unable or unwilling to serve the duties of the treasurer of state shall be performed by the candidate for auditor of state, at the last election at which the auditor of state was elected of the major political party in this state of which the treasurer of state is not a member, or, if such candidate for auditor of state is unable or unwilling to serve, by the candidate for governor, or, if he is unable or unwilling to serve, by the candidate for attorney general, or, if he is unable or unwilling to serve, by the candidate for treasurer of the state.

Section 2. The apportionment of this state for members of the general assembly shall be made every ten years, commencing in the year one thousand nine hundred seventy one in the following manner: The whole population of the state, as determined by the federal census or, if such is unavailable, such other basis as the general assembly may direct, shall be divided by the number "ninety - nine" and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the house of representatives for ten years next succeeding such apportionment. The whole population of the state as determined by the federal census, or, if such is unavailable, such other basis as the general assembly may direct, shall be divided by the number "thirty - three" and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the senate for ten years next succeeding such apportionment. Senate districts shall be composed of three contiguous house of representative districts. The governor shall cause the apportionment to be published no later than October 5 of the year in which it is made, in such manner as shall be provided by law.

Section 3. At the time the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, ascertain and determine the ratios of representation pursuant to this article, they shall also determine the boundary lines of each district from which members of the house of representatives and senate shall be elected for the ten years next succeeding such apportionment, and shall assign to each of the house of representatives districts and the senate districts a number, which numbers, for house of representative districts, shall commence with the number one and increase consecutively until each district has been numbered. Senate districts shall be numbered as provided in Section 6 of this Article. In every instance the boundary lines of districts shall follow boundary lines of counties, townships, municipalities, or city wards. The boundary of every district shall be a single, continuous line. In every instance the districts shall be reasonably compact. In those instances where the population of a county is not greater than one hundred and ten per cent of the ratio of representation in the house of representatives, reasonable effort shall be made to avoid dividing the county. Counties shall be the fundamental political subdivisions from which house of representatives districts are formed.

Section 4. No house of representatives district shall contain a population of less than ninety per cent nor more than one hundred and ten per cent of the ratio of representation in the house of representatives as determined pursuant to this article.

Section 5. No senate district shall contain a population of less than ninety per cent nor more than one hundred and ten per cent of the ratio of representation of the senate as determined pursuant to this article.

Section 6. At any time the boundaries of senate districts are changed in any plan of apportionment made pursuant to any provision of this Article, a senator whose term will not expire within two years of the time the plan of apportionment is made shall represent, for the remainder of the term for which he was elected, the senate district which contains the largest portion of the population of the district from which he was elected, and the district shall be given the number of the district from which the senator was elected. If more than one senator whose term will not so expire would represent the same district by following the provisions of this section, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of the state or other person as provided by section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall designate which senator shall represent the district and shall designate which district the other senator or senators shall represent for the balance of their term or terms.

Section 7. The Supreme Court of Ohio shall have exclusive, original jurisdiction in all cases arising under this Article. In the event that any section of this Constitution relating to apportionment or any plan of apportionment made by the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general or any three of them, as determined to be invalid by either the Supreme Court of Ohio, or the Supreme Court of the United States, then notwithstanding any other provisions of this Constitution, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall ascertain and determine a plan of apportionment, including establishing terms of office and election of members of the General Assembly from districts designated in the plan, to be used until the next regular apportionment in conformity with such provisions of this constitution as are then valid.

Section 8. The governor shall give the auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general two weeks advance written notice of the date, time and place at which any ascertainment or determination is to be made pursuant to this article.

Section 9. The boundaries of house of representatives districts and senate districts from which representatives and senators were elected to the 107th General Assembly shall be the boundaries of house of representatives and senate districts until January 1, 1973, and representatives and senators elected in the general election in 1966 shall hold office for the terms to which they were elected. In the event all or any part of this apportionment plan is held invalid prior to the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred seventy, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall ascertain and determine a plan of apportionment to be effective until January 1, one thousand nine hundred seventy three in accordance with section 7 of this article.

Section 10. The various provisions of this Article XI are intended to be severable, and the invalidity of one or more of such provisions shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

The Real Thing Is Hard To Recognize

Reality and fiction are juxtaposed on TV so promiscuously these days that it becomes difficult sometimes to keep one from fusing with the other, often to the detriment of reality.

Hal Humphrey

We know when we see our soldiers on the TV news in the Vietnam jungles that it is for real, of course. But we also see so many modern warfare battle scenes staged on Hollywood's movie lots that we can become almost adjusted to this made-up horror or, more tragically, even inured to a point of being unimpressed with the real thing.

-:-

FOR EXAMPLE, Tuesday the ABC-TV network pre-empts an episode of its fictional "Combat" series for "Our Time in Hell," a documentary of the U.S. Marine Corps' bloody hegira through the South Pacific in World War II.

Every piece of this film was shot by Marine Corps cameramen, and some 30 to 40 per cent of it never has been exposed to the public before.

Yet I couldn't help wondering as I watched a preview of it just how many viewers still would not find themselves as emotionally interested or involved with the men in "Our Time in Hell" as with the weekly heroes in "Combat."

To a large extent "Our Time in Hell" is saved from being what has become looked upon as routine combat footage by a fine script prepared by producer-director Laurence E. Mascott, most of which is narrated by actor Lee Marvin, who fought with the Marines and participated in three of the island landings.

MASCOTT put together "The Brave Rifles," the story of the Battle of the Bulge, seen last December as part of ABC's "Stage 67" series. As a corporal in the infantry involved in that battle, Mascott says he felt qualified to tell what it's like to be a soldier in combat.

At a preview of his "Rifles" documentary in Washington, Mascott was asked by Marine Maj. William Boone if he wouldn't be interested in doing a similar TV documentary on the Marine Corps in the Pacific.

"I explained to the major that I'd never been in the Marine Corps, but he told me the only difference with a Marine is that he gets seasick. He also said," recalls Mascott, "that all of their combat film had been shot in color and that intrigued me."

MASCOTT had some bad moments after he returned to Hollywood and Maj. Boone forwarded a portion of the film. Laboratory technicians reported it was "unusable." Climate and age had shrunk it, obliterating the sprocket holes and fading the color.

He kept making the rounds, finally finding some specialists for film rejuvenation.

"It's quite complex and tricky," says Mascott. "The chemicals which had deteriorated were reinjected into the film through a process of vaporization and the film was stretched. But we had to work fast in taking our duplicates from it, because within 48 hours the film would deteriorate to its original unusable form."

ONCE the film was saved, Mascott began his research for the script, much of which went into writing soliloquies to project the thoughts of individual Marines before, during and after a battle.

These, plus Marvin's connective narration, give "Our Time in Hell" a sense of the realism so frequently missing from an overdramatic and superficial commentary written and delivered by a person or persons unacquainted with the real thing.

Besides Mascott's battle experiences, he has been a newspaperman in Chicago and taught Shakespeare at the University of Nevada in Reno. Mascott decided it was time to look for more remunerative work when his wife got herself a job dealing blackjack in one of Reno's gambling emporiums at $300 a week.

THE MASCOTTS then went to California, where he began writing for movies and TV. His interest in documentaries was sharpened when David Wolper assigned him to write "The Race for Space," which started Wolper on a highly successful career as a producer of TV nonfiction films.

Although still interested in turning out documentaries (he has another, "Those Crazy Americans," coming up on ABC later this year), Mascott admits that "nobody is knocking at my door" with assignments — probably because he digs a bit deeper than TV considers necessary for its generally superficial level of reporting.

So far, Mascott's biggest reward for his work in this field is the hundreds of letters from ex-GIs who've said, "You tell about war as it really was."

Legislators Returning To Work Again

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's lawmakers return from an Easter vacation tonight with most of the problems they faced opening day Jan. 2 still to be resolved.

Only routine floor sessions were planned to begin their 12th week of work but the pace figured to quicken with major bills up for consideration later in the week.

The House plans to vote Tuesday on a bill providing pay increases for an estimated 45,000 state employes while senators called up the same day a measure to control the hallucinatory drug LSD.

Virtually all the lawmakers' attention was devoted in the first two weeks of the session to the GOP administration's bond commission and apportionment proposals scheduled for a place on the May 2 ballot.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray R-3 Miami acknowledged that the constitutional proposals dominated the legislature's time but said that with the return from the 10-day Easter recess work will begin on "bread and butter" legislation.

Gray listed highway safety, air and water pollution, unemployment and workmen's compensation, and education among the most important areas in which work is planned.

Hearings are expected to start soon on the administration's two-year operating budget which in its present form calls for no new or additional taxes. But some observers maintain new taxes will be needed and that this will be shown by tax studies now nearing completion. Gov. James A. Rhodes has asserted he will hold the line on taxes.

The House is scheduled to begin hearings this week on an omnibus highway safety measure which would include compulsory motor vehicle inspection and driver examination.

Other house hearings are planned on bills to write into law an executive order banning racial discrimination in hiring on state projects, and to allow municipalities to levy up to a 1½ per cent income tax without voter approval. The limit now is one per cent.

Senate bills due for hearings would make extensive revisions in Ohio's banking laws and increase tax exemptions for water pollution control equipment.

Varied Incidents Investigated By Sheriff's Office

LISBON — The stoning of a Pennsylvania Railroad locomotive on the Kensington overpass was one of several miscellaneous complaints investigated over the weekend by the sheriff's department.

The operator at the Bayard Tower notified the sheriff at 7:56 p. m. Saturday that some boys broke the fireman's window on the westbound freight.

Charles Morlan of St. Jacob's Church Rd. called the sheriff at 8 a. m. Saturday to report the theft of a tool box and assorted tools from an enclosed porch at his home.

Lowell Sanor of North Georgetown Rd., near Willow Grove Grange, and Frank Grimes of Cunningham Rd., Salem R. D. 3, reported shooting incidents.

Sanor said someone in a vehicle shot out a security light Saturday night at his place. Grimes said pellets from a gun hit the side of his house and broke a storm window on his living room window about 8 p.m. Sunday.

John Bogdan, owner of Lake Eldorado on Route 30 four miles west of Lisbon, called at 5:05 p. m. Saturday relative to vandalism at the pavilion and grounds.

Someone broke into a gum machine at the New Waterford laundromat Sunday evening, owner Donald Clark of East Palestine reported at 11 last night.

Middletown Hospital Picketed By Employes

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Non-professional employes picketed Middletown Hospital today in support of a demand by Local 1171 of the Public Service Employes Union (AFL-CIO) for recognition as bargaining agent.

About 35 pickets were on hand but no effort was made to stop anyone from entering the hospital.

Walter Mischley, hospital administrator, said there were "some strangers" on the picket line but that others were hospital employes.

The union has claimed that 90 per cent of its hospital members made less than $3,000 in 1966. Mischley said there were 43 such employes but only 10 of them worked a full work week for the year. He said a 20 cents an hour pay increase has been granted and that no employe will make less than $3,000 in 1967.

His wife, Linda, 23, who escaped serious burns but suffered shock, was released from the hospital Saturday.

The governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state and attorney general, or any three of them, unless all five of them are members of the same political party, on a date designated by the governor, but which shall be between August 1 and October 1 in the year one thousand nine hundred seventy one, and every tenth year thereafter, shall ascertain and determine the ratios of representation as set forth in section 2 of this Article for a house of representatives of ninety - nine members and a senate of thirty-three members. If the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state and attorney general are all members of the same political party at any time they are to perform any duties pusuant to this Article, the treasurer of state shall not perform such duties and such duties shall be performed in his place by the person who was the candidate for secretary of state at the last election at which the secretary of state was elected of the major political party in this state of which the treasurer of state is not a member. If such candidate is unable or unwilling to serve the duties of the treasurer of state shall be performed by the candidate for auditor of state, at the last election at which the auditor of state was elected of the major political party in this state of which the treasurer of state is not a member, or, if such candidate for auditor of state is unable or unwilling to serve, by the candidate for governor, or, if he is unable or unwilling to serve, by the candidate for attorney general, or, if he is unable or unwilling to serve, by the candidate for treasurer of the state.

Section 2. The apportionment of this state for members of the general assembly shall be made every ten years, commencing in the year one thousand nine hundred seventy one in the following manner: The whole population of the state, as determined by the federal census or, if such is unavailable, such other basis as the general assembly may direct, shall be divided by the number "ninety - nine" and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the house of representatives for ten years next succeeding such apportionment. The whole population of the state as determined by the federal census, or, if such is unavailable, such other basis as the general assembly may direct, shall be divided by the number "thirty - three" and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the senate for ten years next succeeding such apportionment. Senate districts shall be composed of three contiguous house of representative districts. The governor shall cause the apportionment to be published no later than October 5 of the year in which it is made, in such manner as shall be provided by law.

Section 3. At the time the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, ascertain and determine the ratios of representation pursuant to this article, they shall also determine the boundary lines of each district from which members of the house of representatives and senate shall be elected for the ten years next succeeding such apportionment, and shall assign to each of the house of representatives districts and the senate districts a number, which numbers, for house of representative districts, shall commence with the number one and increase consecutively until each district has been numbered. Senate districts shall be numbered as provided in Section 6 of this Article. In every instance the boundary lines of districts shall follow boundary lines of counties, townships, municipalities, or city wards. The boundary of every district shall be a single, continuous line. In every instance the districts shall be reasonably compact. In those instances where the population of a county is not greater than one hundred and ten per cent of the ratio of representation in the house of representatives, reasonable effort shall be made to avoid dividing the county. Counties shall be the fundamental political subdivisions from which house of representatives districts are formed.

Section 4. No house of representatives district shall contain a population of less than ninety per cent nor more than one hundred and ten per cent of the ratio of representation in the house of representatives as determined pursuant to this article.

Section 5. No senate district shall contain a population of less than ninety per cent nor more than one hundred and ten per cent of the ratio of representation of the senate as determined pursuant to this article.

Section 6. At any time the boundaries of senate districts are changed in any plan of apportionment made pursuant to any provision of this Article, a senator whose term will not expire within two years of the time the plan of apportionment is made shall represent for the remainder of the term for which he was elected, the senate district which contains the largest portion of the population of the district from which he was elected, and the district shall be given the number of the district from which the senator was elected. If more than one senator whose term will not so expire would represent the same district by following the provisions of this section, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of the state or other person as provided by section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall designate which senator shall represent the district and shall designate which district the other senator or senators shall represent for the balance of their term or terms.

Section 7. The Supreme Court of Ohio shall have exclusive, original jurisdiction in all cases arising under this Article. In the event that any section of this Constitution relating to apportionment or any plan of apportionment made by the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, as determined to be invalid by either the Supreme Court of Ohio, or the Supreme Court of the United States, then notwithstanding any other provisions of this Constitution, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall ascertain and determine a plan of apportionment, including establishing terms of office and election of members of the General Assembly from districts designated in the plan, to be used until the next regular apportionment in conformity with such provisions of this constitution as are then valid.

Section 8. The governor shall give the auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general two weeks advance written notice of the date, time and place at which any ascertainment or determination is to be made pursuant to this article.

Section 9. The boundaries of house of representatives districts and senate districts from which representatives and senators were elected to the 107th General Assembly shall be the boundaries of house of representatives and senate districts until January 1, 1973, and representatives and senators elected in the general election in 1966 shall hold office for the terms to which they were elected. In the event all or any part of this apportionment plan is held invalid prior to the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred seventy, the governor, auditor of state, secretary of state, treasurer of state or other person as provided in section 1 of this Article, and attorney general, or any three of them, shall ascertain and determine a plan of apportionment to be effective until January 1, one thousand nine hundred seventy three in accordance with section 7 of this article.

Section 10. The various provisions of this Article XI are intended to be severable, and the invalidity of one or more of such provisions shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

Junior Editors Quiz on PIPE ORGAN

ANSWER: Pipe organs use a very ancient musical principle to produce sound by blowing air through pipes. In older days, this air was blown in by pumpers working a bellows (lower right). Nowadays an electric motor spins a blower which supplies aid to a wind chest under the pipes where it is held under pressure waiting to be used. The player sits at an organ console separate from the pipes (lower left). When he presses a key on what looks like a piano keyboard, an electric connection releases air from the wind chest. The air blows up into the correct pipe for that note, making the sound. Sound is either produceed by the whistle principle, with the air striking a sharp edge in the front opening, making a column of air vibrate—or the air may start a reed virbrating inside the pipe. Many organs now are built which produce sounds electronically, using radio tubes and amplifiers. These are not true pipe organs. They have advantages, but produce a somewhat different quality of tone.

The player sits at an organ console separate from the pipes (lower left). When he presses a key on what looks like a piano keyboard, an electric connection releases air from the wind chest. The air blows up into the correct pipe for that note, making the sound. Sound is either produceed by the whistle principle, with the air striking a sharp edge in the front opening, making a column of air vibrate—or the air may start a reed virbrating inside the pipe. Many organs now are built which produce sounds electronically, using radio tubes and amplifiers. These are not true pipe organs. They have advantages, but produce a somewhat different quality of tone.
